How to Leverage the PRC Process to Deal with Skill Mix Concerns

ONA Provincial Professional Practice Teleconnect

Date: Monday, December 6, 2010

Time: 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Topic: How to Leverage the PRC Process to Deal with Skill Mix Concerns
During this one-hour session, we will address strategies on how to use the Professional Responsibility Complaint (PRC) process to deal with skill mix concerns. Professional Practice Specialists will provide practical information to assist ONA leaders in dealing with this important workplace issue.

Audience: This teleconnect will be of particular interest to ONA's Bargaining Unit Workload and Professional Responsibility Representatives, Bargaining Unit Presidents and Local Coordinators.

Format: Vicki McKenna, ONA First Vice-President, will be the moderator for this one-hour teleconference. It will begin with a presentation by ONA's Professional Practice Specialists. The presentation will also address any pre-submitted questions from ONA members. The last portion of the teleconference will consist of questions and answers from participants.

Registration: ONA members will be able to register for the teleconnect by sending an e-mail to RegisterProfPractice@ona.org. Members will be required to provide their name and ONA ID number. Once registered, the member will receive a response, which will include the telephone number to call in, as well as the conference number to enter.

Registration will be on a first-come, first-serve basis. ONA reserves the right to limit the number of registrations.

Materials: PowerPoint slides of the presentation will be e-mailed to registrants prior to the teleconnect. The presentation and related materials will be posted on the ONA website following the teleconnect.

Questions: When registering for the teleconnect, members will also be able to pre-submit any questions they would like to have addressed in the presentation.
