- (b) It is agreed that Union representative and member of the Grievance Committee have their regular duties and responsibilities to perform for the Employer and shall not leave their regular duties without first obtaining permission from their immediate supervisor. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. 8.08 All reference to union representatives, committee members and officers in this Agreement shall be deemed to mean employee representatives, committee members or officers of the Local Union.

8.09 The Employer agrees to give representatives of the Ontario Nurses' Association access to the premises of the workplace for the purpose of attending grievance meetings or otherwise assisting in the administration of this Agreement, provided prior arrangements are made with the Executive Director or designate. Such representatives shall have access to the premises only with the approval of the Executive Director which will not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE 9 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 9.01 For purposes of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as a difference arising between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the Agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.
- 9.02 At the time formal discipline is imposed or at any stage of the grievance procedure, including the complaint stage, an employee is entitled to be represented by her/his union representative. In the case of suspension or discharge, the Employer shall notify the employee of the purpose of this meeting and of this right in advance. The Employer will also advise the Bargaining Unit unless requested otherwise.
- 9.03 It is the mutual desire of the parties hereto that complaints of employees shall be adjusted as quickly as possible, and it is understood that an employee has no grievance until she/he has first given her/his immediate supervisor the opportunity of adjusting the complaint. Such complaint shall be discussed with her/his immediate supervisor within nine (9) calendar days after the circumstances giving rise to it have occurred or ought reasonably to have come to the attention of the employee. This discussion may include consultation, advice and assistance from others. If there is no settlement within nine (9) calendar days, it shall then be taken up as a grievance within nine (9) calendar days following advice of the immediate supervisor's decision in the following manner and sequence:

Step No. 1

The employee may submit a written grievance through the Union, signed by the employee, to her/his immediate supervisor. The grievance shall be on a form referred to in Article 9.08 and shall identify the nature of the grievance and the remedy sought and should identify the provisions of the Agreement which are alleged to be violated. The immediate supervisor will deliver her/his decision in writing within nine (9) calendar days following the day on which the grievance was presented to her/him. Failing settlement, then:

Step No. 2

Within nine (9) calendar days following the decision under Step No. 1, the grievance may be submitted in writing to the Director of the Chapleau and District Family Health Team or designate. A meeting will then be held between the Employer Administrator or designate and the Grievance Committee within nine (9) calendar days of the submission of the grievance at Step No. 2 unless extended by mutual agreement of the parties. It is understood and agreed that a representative of the Ontario Nurses' Association and the grievor may be present at the meeting. It is further understood that the Executive Director or designate may have such counsel and assistance as she/he may desire at such meeting. The decision of the Employer shall be delivered in writing to the Labour Relations Officer and the local association representative within nine (9) calendar days following the date of such meeting.

- 9.04 A complaint or grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union concerning the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the Agreement shall be originated at Step No. 2 within fourteen (14) calendar days following the circumstances giving rise to the complaint or grievance. It is expressly understood, however, that the provisions of this article may not be used with respect to a grievance directly affecting an employee which such employee could himself institute and the regular grievance procedure shall not be hereby bypassed. A grievance by the Employer shall be filed with the Bargaining Unit President or designate.
- 9.05 Where a number of employees have identical grievances, and each employee would be entitled to grieve separately they may present a group grievance in writing signed by each employee who is grieving to the Director or designate within fourteen (14) calendar days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred or ought reasonably to have come to the attention of the employee(s). The grievance shall then be treated as being initiated at Step No. 2 and the applicable provisions of this Article shall then apply with respect to the processing of such grievances.
- 9.06 The Union may process a grievance to the subsequent step level in the event the Employer fails to respond within the prescribed time limits.
- It is understood and agreed that the Union has carriage of all grievances throughout the grievance and arbitration procedure and not any individual or group of individuals. All agreements reached under the grievance procedure between the representatives of the Employer and the representatives of the Union will be final and binding upon the Employer and the Union and the employees.
- 9.07 Union grievances shall be on the form set out in Appendix 1.
- 9.08 The release of an employee during the probationary period shall not be subject of a grievance or arbitration unless such release is a result of discrimination under the Human Rights Code.
- 9.09 Arbitration
- (a) Failing settlement under the foregoing procedure of any grievance between the parties arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, such grievance may be submitted to arbitration as hereinafter provided. If no written request for arbitration is received within thirty-six (36) calendar days after the decision under Step No. 2 is given, the grievance shall be deemed to have been abandoned. Where such a written request is postmarked within thirty-four (34) calendar days after the decision under Step No.2 , it will be deemed to have been received within the time limits.

- (b) The parties agree that it is their intent to resolve grievances without recourse to arbitration, wherever possible. Therefore, notwithstanding (a) above, the parties may, upon mutual agreement, engage the services of a mediator in an effort to resolve the grievance and may extend the time limits for the request for arbitration. The parties will share equally the fees and expenses, if any, of the mediator.

9.10 Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including any questions as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this Agreement has been violated, either of the parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure established by this Agreement, notify the other party in writing of its decision to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration. Where the grievance concerns:

- (a) Selection decisions on job vacancies
- (b) Premiums
- (c) Scheduling issues
- (d) Article 21 – Compensation issues
- (e) Entitlement to leaves, including vacation
- (f) Discipline up to, but not including discharge
- (g) Short term layoffs
- (h) Dues issues
- (i) Any other issues agreed by the parties, the matter shall be determined by a sole arbitrator, unless the parties agree to proceed under Article 9.11. The sole arbitrator shall proceed by way of mediation-arbitration at the request of either party. When either party requests that any such matter be submitted to mediation-arbitration or to arbitration as provided above, it shall make such request in writing addressed to the other party to this Agreement and, at the same time, it shall propose the name of a sole arbitrator. Within seven (7) calendar days thereafter, the other party shall agree in writing or propose an alternate name(s). If there is no agreement within fourteen (14) calendar days, the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario shall have the power to affect such appointment upon application thereto by the party invoking the arbitration procedure. No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.

Subject to Article 9.14, once appointed, the sole arbitrator shall have all powers as set out in Section 50 of the Labour Relations Act, including the power to mediate/arbitrate the grievance, to impose a settlement and to limit evidence and submissions.

- 9.11 For all other grievances, the matter shall be determined by a three (3) person Board of Arbitration, unless the parties agree to proceed under Article 9.11. The party requesting arbitration shall, at the time of notification of its decision to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration shall name a nominee. Within seven (7) calendar days thereafter the other party shall name a nominee. However, if such party fails to name a nominee as herein required, the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario shall have the power to effect such appointment upon application by the party invoking the arbitration procedure. The two (2) nominees, or the parties, if they have agreed not to utilize nominees shall attempt to select by agreement a chair of the arbitration board. If they are unable to agree upon such a chair within a period of fourteen (14) calendar days they shall then request the Minister of Labour for the province of Ontario to appoint a chair. No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.

Subject to Article 9.14, once appointed, the Board of Arbitration shall have all powers as set out in Section 50 of the Labour Relations Act, including the power to mediate/arbitrate the grievance, to impose a settlement and to limit evidence and submissions.

- 9.12 No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through all requisite steps of the Grievance Procedure.
- 9.13 The Arbitration Board shall not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify, add to or amend any part of this Agreement.
- 9.14 The proceedings of the Arbitration Board will be expedited by the parties hereto and the decision of the majority and where there is no majority the decision of the chair will be final and binding upon the parties hereto and the employee(s) concerned.
- 9.15 Each of the parties hereto will bear the expense of the nominee appointed by it and the parties will share equally the fees and expenses, if any, of the chair of the Arbitration Board.
- 9.16 The time limits set out in the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures herein are mandatory and failure to comply strictly with such time limits except by the written agreement of the parties, shall result in the grievance being deemed to have been abandoned subject only to the provisions of Section 48(16) of The Labour Relations Act.

ARTICLE 10 - ORIENTATION AND INSERVICE

- 10.01 The Employer recognizes the need for an Employer Orientation Program of such duration as it may deem appropriate taking into consideration the needs of the Employer and the employees involved.
- 10.02 Employees who displace other employees in the event of a long-term layoff, employees recalled from layoff, employees whose probationary period has been extended under Article 12.01, and employees who are transferred on a permanent basis may be provided any orientation determined necessary by the Employer for the purposes of allowing the employee to assume satisfactorily the duties of such position. Such programs will be publicized.

- Employees who are subject to layoff due to technological change will be given notice of such layoff at the earliest reasonable time and in keeping with the requirements of the applicable legislation and the provisions of Article 12.07 will apply.

- (b) Where technological change is being implemented and new or greater skills are required than are already possessed by affected employees under the present methods of operation, such employees shall be given a period of training, with due consideration being given to the employee's age and previous educational background, during which they may perfect or acquire the skills necessitated by the new method of operation. In determining the position for which training will be provided the Employer shall take account of the employees stated preference.
- (b) Where an employee receives training under this provision, she/he need not be considered for any further vacancies for a period of six (6) months from the date she/he is placed in the position.

A copy of the evaluation will be provided to the employee at her or his request. A request by an employee for a copy of other documents in her or his file will not be unreasonably denied.

Notwithstanding this provision, seniority and service will accrue and the Employer will continue to pay the premiums for benefit plans for employees for a period of up to seventeen (17) weeks while an employee is on pregnancy leave under Article 13.07 and while an employee is on parental leave under Article 13.08 for a period of up to eighteen (18) weeks or the maximum allowed under the Employment Standards Act, the Employment Insurance Act or other applicable legislation, whichever is greatest. Seniority and service will accrue for an adoptive parent or a natural father for a period of up to thirty-five (35) weeks or the maximum allowed under Employment Standards Act, the Employment Insurance Act or other applicable legislation while on parental leave under Article 13.08.

NOTE 1: The accrual of seniority and service for employees on pregnancy and parental leave applies to both full-time and part-time employees.

NOTE 2: This clause shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with the Ontario Human Rights Code.

12.05 Seniority for part-time employees shall accrue for absences due to a disability in excess of thirty (30) consecutive calendar days. The rate of accumulation will be based on the employee's normal weekly hours paid over the preceding qualifying twenty-six (26) weeks. A qualifying week is a week where the employee is not absent due to vacation, pregnancy-parental leave, WSIB, or illness or injury that exceeds thirty (30) consecutive calendar days.

12.06 Loss of Seniority

An employee shall lose all service and seniority and shall be deemed to have terminated if the employee:

- (a) resigns
- (b) retires
- (c) is discharged and not reinstated through the grievance and arbitration procedures
- (d) has been laid off for twenty-four (24) months
- (e) is absent from scheduled work for a period of three (3) or more consecutive working days without notifying the Employer of such absence and providing a reason satisfactory to the Employer.
- (f) fails to return to work (subject to the provisions of 12.05(e)) upon termination of an authorized leave of absence without permission in writing from the Employer. Such permission will not be unreasonably denied.
- (g) if the employee has been laid off and fails to return to work within fifteen (15) calendar days after the employee has been notified of a recall by the Employer, through registered mail, addressed to the last address on the records of the Employer; or such further period of time as may be agreed upon by the parties.

NOTE: This clause shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with the Ontario Human Rights Code.

- 12.07 (a) i) Where a permanent vacancy occurs in a classification within the bargaining unit or a new position within the bargaining unit is established by the Employer, such vacancy shall be posted for a period of seven (7) consecutive calendar days. All applications are to be made in writing within the posting period. Subsequent vacancies created by the filling of a posted vacancy are to be posted for five (5) consecutive days.
- ii) A copy of all job postings will be provided to the local Union at the time of posting. As well, the names of the successful candidate will be provided.
- iii) The job posting provisions take precedence over any recall rights that employees may have under this agreement, unless otherwise provided herein.

Where a full-time employee on layoff is the successful candidate for a vacant part-time position, she/he shall retain recall rights to her/his former position in the full-time bargaining unit for a period of six months from the date of her/his layoff. This shall also apply to a part-time employee on layoff who is the successful candidate for a vacant full-time position. In these circumstances, the job posting provisions will not apply.

- (b) An employee may make a written request for transfer by advising the Employer and filing a Request for Transfer form indicating her/his name, qualifications, experience, present area of assignment, seniority and requested area of assignment. A Request for Transfer shall become active as of the date it is received by the Employer and shall remain so until December 31 following. Such requests will be considered as applications for posted vacancies and subsequent vacancies created by the filling of a posted vacancy.

At the request of the employee, the Employer will discuss with unsuccessful applicants ways in which they can improve their qualifications for future postings.

- (c) Notification to Unsuccessful Job Applicants

The parties agree that any unsuccessful candidate for an ONA job posting will be notified, in writing, within one (1) week of the decision being made and prior to the posting of the name of the successful candidate.

The parties further agree that the above notification will be copied to the ONA Bargaining Unit President.

- (d) Employees shall be selected for positions under either 12.06 (a) on the basis of their ability, experience and qualifications. Where these factors are relatively equal amongst the employees considered, seniority shall govern providing the successful applicant, if any, is qualified to perform the available work within an appropriate familiarization period.

The successful applicant will be placed in the vacancy for a trial period not exceeding thirty (30) working days and if the employee proves satisfactory, then she/he shall be considered permanently assigned to the vacancy. If the employee proves unsatisfactory during that time, or if the employee feels she/he is unable to perform the duties of the vacancy to which she/he is posted, the employee will be returned to her/his former position at her/his former salary or rate of pay, and the filling of subsequent vacancies will likewise be reversed.

- (e) Vacancies which are not expected to exceed sixty (60) calendar days and vacancies caused due to illness, accident, leaves of absence (including pregnancy and parental) may be filled at the discretion of the Employer. In filling such vacancies consideration shall be given to regular part-time employees in the bargaining unit on the basis of seniority who are qualified to perform the work in question. If the temporary vacancy is not filled by a regular part-time employee, consideration will be given to casual part-time employees in the bargaining unit on the basis of seniority who are qualified to perform the work in question, prior to utilizing non-bargaining unit employees supplied by an agency or registry. It is understood, however, that where such vacancies occur on short notice, failure to offer part-time employees such work shall not result in any claim for pay for time not worked while proper arrangements are made to fill the vacancy. Where part-time employees fill temporary full-time vacancies, such employees shall be considered regular part-time and shall be covered by the terms of the part-time collective agreement. Upon completion of the temporary vacancy, such employee shall be reinstated to her/his former position unless the position has been discontinued, in which case the employee shall be given a comparable job.
- (f) The Employer shall have the right to fill any permanent vacancy on a temporary basis until the posting procedure or the Request for Transfer procedure provided herein has been complied with and arrangements have been made to permit the employee selected to fill the vacancy to be assigned to the job.
- (g) An employee selected as a result of a posted vacancy or a Request for Transfer need not be considered for a further permanent vacancy for a period of up to six (6) months from the date of her/his selection. This does not apply to employees applying for vacancies or requesting a transfer to full-time or regular part-time positions posted in accordance with Article 12.07.

12.08 Layoff

- (a) A short-term layoff shall mean:
 - i) a layoff resulting from a planned temporary closure of any part of the Employer's workplace during all or part of the months of July and August (a summer shutdown) or during the period between December 15thP and January 15thP inclusive (Christmas shutdown); or
 - ii) a layoff resulting from a planned temporary closure, not anticipated to exceed six months in length, of any part of the Employer's workplace for the purpose of construction or renovations; or
 - iii) any other temporary layoff which is not anticipated to exceed three (3) months in length.
- (b) In the event of a short-term layoff, the Employer shall provide the local Union with no less than 30 calendar days' notice.
- (c) Cancellation of single or partial shifts shall not be considered a layoff, however it will be conducted on the basis of the reverse seniority of employees in the classification affected. A partial or single shift reassignment will not be considered a layoff; however it will also be conducted on the basis of reverse seniority in the classification affected.
- (d) An employee who has been notified of a short-term layoff may:
 - i) accept the layoff; or
 - ii) elect to transfer to a vacant position, provided she/he is qualified to perform the available work; or
 - iii) displace the least senior employee in the bargaining unit whose work she/he is qualified to perform.
- (e) A "long-term layoff" shall mean any layoff which is not a short-term layoff.
- (f) In the event of a proposed layoff at the Employer of a permanent or long-term nature the Employer shall:
 - i) provide the Union with no less than sixty (60) days written notice of the proposed layoff or elimination of position; and

- ii) provide to the affected employee(s) no less than sixty (60) days written notice of layoff.
- (g) An employee who has been notified of a long-term layoff may
- i) accept the layoff; or
 - ii) elect to transfer to a vacant position provided that she/he is qualified to perform the available work; or
 - iii) displace another employee, in any classification for which qualified, and who has lesser bargaining unit seniority and who is the least senior employee on a unit or area whose work the employee subject to layoff is qualified to perform.
- (h) In all cases of layoff, the Employer shall meet with the local Union to review the following:
- i) the reasons for the layoff and the expected duration of the layoff if short term
 - ii) the service which the Employer will undertake after the layoff;
 - iii) the method of implementation including the areas of cut-back and the employees to be laid off; and
 - iv) any limits which the parties may agree on the number of employees who may be newly assigned to a unit or area.

Note: Where any proposed layoff results in the subsequent displacement of any member(s) of the bargaining unit, the original notice to the Union provided above shall be considered notice to the Union of any subsequent layoff.

12.09 In the event of a layoff, employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of seniority provided that the employees who are entitled to remain on the basis of seniority are qualified to perform the available work. Subject to the foregoing, probationary employees shall be first laid off.

12.10 (a) Any agreement between the Employer and the Union concerning the method of implementation of a layoff shall take precedence over the terms of this article. The unavailability of a representative of the Union shall not delay any meeting regarding layoffs or staff reductions.

(b) Where a vacancy occurs in a position following a layoff hereunder as a result of which an employee has been transferred to another position, the affected employee will be offered the opportunity to return to her/his former position providing such vacancy occurs within six (6) months of the date of layoff. Where the employee returns to her/his former position there shall be no obligation to consider the vacancy under Article 12.06. Where the employee refuses the opportunity to return to her/his former position the employee shall advise the Employer in writing.

- (c) No reduction in hours or work shall take place to prevent or reduce the impact of a layoff without the consent of the Union. In the event that the Employer has an operational requirement for such reduction in hours to reduce the impact of layoff, such consent by the Union will not be unreasonably withheld.
- (d) All regular part-time and full-time employees represented by the Union who are on layoff will be given a job opportunity in the full-time and regular part-time categories as per Article 12.09 before any new employee is hired into either category.
- (e) Full-time and part-time layoff and recall rights shall be separate.
- (f) Casual part-time employees shall not be utilized while full-time or regular part-time employees remain on layoff, unless the provisions of Article 12.09 have been complied with.
- (g) In this Article (12.08), a "vacant position" shall mean a position for which the posting process has been completed and no successful applicant has been appointed.

12.11 Full-time and regular part-time employees shall be recalled in the order of seniority subject to the following provisions, provided that an employee recalled is qualified to perform the available work.

- (a) Full-time and regular part-time employees on layoff may notify the Employer of their interest in accepting occasional vacancies and/or temporary vacancies which may arise and for which they are qualified. Such notification of interest shall state any restrictions on the type of assignment which an employee is willing to accept and shall remain valid for six weeks. However if an employee declines an occasional or temporary vacancy the Employer shall not be obliged to call upon the employee again during the balance of such six-week period.
- (b) For the purposes of this article, an "occasional vacancy" shall mean an assignment which is anticipated not to exceed five shifts (37.5 hours). Occasional vacancies shall be offered first to regular part-time employees on layoff who have expressed interest, and if no such part-time employee accepts then to full-time employees on layoff who have expressed interest, and if no such full-time employee accepts then to casual part-time employees.

- (c) For the purposes of this article, a "temporary vacancy" shall mean an assignment which is anticipated to exceed five shifts (37.5 hours). Temporary vacancies which arise in the full-time bargaining unit shall be offered by seniority first to full-time employees on layoff who have expressed interest, and if no such full-time employee accepts then by seniority to regular part-time employees on layoff who have expressed interest, and if no such part-time employee accepts then to casual part-time employees. Temporary vacancies which arise in the part-time unit shall be offered by seniority first to regular part-time employees on layoff who have expressed interest, and if no such part-time employee accepts then by seniority to full-time employees on layoff who have expressed interest, and if no such full-time employee accepts then to casual part-time employees.
- (d) An employee to whom an occasional or temporary vacancy is offered may accept or decline such vacancy and in either case shall maintain her/his position on the recall list.

The acceptance of a temporary or occasional vacancy that is anticipated to exceed sixty (60) calendar days shall be considered a recall from layoff for purposes of Article 12.05(c). No new notice of layoff will be required, and the employee will be deemed to be laid off at the conclusion of the temporary or occasional vacancy.

A full-time employee on layoff who accepts a temporary full-time vacancy within thirty (30) days of the effective day of layoff will continue to receive benefit coverage for the duration of the temporary vacancy.

A full-time employee who has worked for more than 600 hours in 140 calendar days as the result of accepting one or more temporary vacancies shall thereafter be eligible for benefit coverage as a full-time employee and shall be paid accordingly and shall continue to receive benefit coverage so long as she/he continues to fill a temporary vacancy and such full-time employee shall accrue seniority in the manner prescribed for full-time employees throughout the period of employment.

Otherwise, a full-time employee who accepts a temporary or occasional vacancy shall be paid her/his regular full-time rate of pay together with a percentage payment in lieu of benefits at the rate specified for part-time employees.

A full-time employee who accepts a temporary part-time vacancy or occasional vacancies as provided herein will accrue seniority throughout the period of such employment in the manner prescribed for part-time employees.

A part-time employee who accepts a temporary or occasional vacancy will accrue seniority throughout the period of such employment in the manner prescribed for part-time employees.

An employee who is transferred to a position outside of the bargaining unit for a period of more than three (3) months, but not more than one (1) year shall retain, but not accumulate, her or his seniority held at the time of the transfer. In the event the employee is returned to a position in the bargaining unit, she or he shall be credited with seniority held at the time of transfer and resume accumulation from the date of her or his return to the bargaining unit.

An employee must remain in the bargaining unit for a period of at least three (3) months before transferring out of the bargaining unit again or she or he will lose all seniority held at the time of the subsequent transfer.

- (b) In the event that an employee is transferred to a position outside of the bargaining unit for a period in excess of one (1) year, she or he will lose all seniority held at the time of transfer. In the event the employee is returned to a position in the bargaining unit, the employee's seniority will accrue from the date of her or his return to the bargaining unit.
- (c) It is understood and agreed that an employee may decline such offer to transfer and that the period of time referred to above may be extended by agreement of the parties.
- (d) The Employer agrees that it will not make work assignments that violate the purpose and intent of this provision. The Employer will advise the Bargaining Unit of the names of any employees performing the duties of positions outside of the bargaining unit pursuant to Articles 12.11 and/or 21.03 (b), the date the assignment commenced, the area of assignment and the duration of such assignments.

- 12.13 (a) Employees not covered by the terms of this Agreement, will not perform the duties normally assigned to those employees who are covered by this Agreement, except for the purposes of instruction, experimentation, or in emergencies, when regular employees are not available.
- (b) The Employer shall not contract out any work usually performed by members of the bargaining unit if, as a result of such contracting out, a layoff of any employees, other than casual part-time employees, results from such contracting out.

- (c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employer may contract out work usually performed by members of the bargaining unit without such contracting-out constituting a breach of this provision if the Employer provides in its commercial arrangement contracting out the work that the contractor to whom the work is being contracted, and any subsequent such contractor, agrees:

- i) to employ the employees thus displaced from the Employer; and
- ii) in doing so to stand, with respect to that work, in the place of the Employer for the purposes of the Employer's collective agreement with the Union, and to execute into an agreement with the Union to that effect.

In order to ensure compliance with this provision, the Employer agrees that it will withdraw the work from any contractor who has failed to meet the aforesaid terms of the contracting-out arrangement.

- 12.14 (a) Local Human Resource Plans will apply to Health Services Restructuring Commission directives. In other circumstances, the balance of this Article will apply.
- (b) Where an employee has received individual notice of long-term layoff under Article 12.07 such employee may resign and receive a separation allowance as follows:
- i) Where an employee resigns effective within thirty (30) days after receiving individual notice of long term layoff, she/he shall be entitled to a separation allowance of two (2) weeks' salary for each year of continuous service to a maximum of sixteen (16) weeks' pay, and, on production of receipts from an approved educational program, within twelve (12) months of resignation will be reimbursed for tuition fees up to a maximum of three thousand ($3,000.00) dollars.

A bargaining unit member who is on a scheduled day off on a day that she/he is required to attend Union functions will, if she/he so requests and where possible, be granted an alternate day off without pay at a mutually agreeable time. The original scheduled day off will then be treated as a leave of absence for Union business. Employees shall notify the Employer of their request for union leave at least ten (10) days in advance when possible. Part-time employees will receive service and seniority credit for all leaves granted under this Article.
