RE: ESA Agreement for Excess Hours

ONA agrees that the employer may exceed the hours of work limitations set out in Section 17(1)(b) of the Employment Standards Act, 2000, but only for the following purpose and to the following extent:

- (a) The Union agrees to average such scheduled hours to allow for a workable schedule over a standard 6 week period. Such schedules are designed to provide an average of 37.5 hours per week for full-time employees.
- (b) The Union agrees to average such scheduled hours over the same 6 week period for the purpose of determining the employee's entitlement, if any, to overtime pay under Section 22 of the Act. This agreement does not apply to any combination of hours which includes hours not on the master rotations or schedules.
- (c) The Union agrees that employees may be asked to work more than their regular scheduled hours in a work day despite the limits set out in Section 18(1), (2), (3) and (4) of the Act. Each employee has the right to refuse the request to work beyond the limits in Section 18(1)(2) and (3) and (4) subject to the emergency provisions of Section 19 of the Act.
- (d) The Union agrees that employees may be asked to work hours which provide less than eight hours free from the performance of work between shifts even if the total time worked on successive shifts exceeds 13 hours. Each employee has the right to refuse the request, subject to the emergency provisions of Section 19 of the Act.
- (e) The Union agrees that employees may be asked to work additional hours to those on their master rotations or schedules, such that they may work more than 48 hours in a week, up to a limit of 60 hours in a week. Each employee has the right to refuse the request, subject to the emergency provisions of Section 19 of the Act.
- (f) With the exception of allowing the averaging of weekly hours for the purpose of determining the employee's entitlement, if any, to overtime pay under Section 22 of the Act this agreement shall not be interpreted to disentitle an employee to any other premium payment under any other provision of the collective agreement.

RE: Article J – Scheduling – Contract Work for CN Rail

The parties recognize the Employer’s commitment to provide services to CN Rail. The parties also recognize that this work is not part of the normal work of the Bargaining Unit Registered Nurse. For this reason, the parties understand there is a requirement to address the scheduling regulations.

It is understood that the RN fulfilling this role will be scheduled these duties, when possible, during her regular scheduled tour and that coverage will be provided on the unit she has been reassigned from to prevent any workload issues. If there is an inability to schedule during the RN’s regularly scheduled tour, the employer will endeavour to book this contract work following the completion of her tour. The nurse will be compensated at overtime for all hours worked beyond her regularly scheduled shift in accordance with Article 14.04. In the event that the work is required and scheduled on her day off, the nurse will receive a minimum of four (4) hours’ pay at her or his regular straight time hourly rate as per Article 14.05.

If the services the employer provides to CN Rail are discontinued, the parties agree the LOU will be discontinued, and discussions will take place regarding any new services that may be provided in the future.
