It is recognized that the parties wish to work cooperatively to provide the best possible health services for patients in a cost effective manner.

1.02 The Employer shall not propose and/or enter into any agreement with an employee that pertains to any terms or conditions of employment that contravene the collective agreement. Any such agreement shall be null and void.

ARTICLE 2 – SCOPE AND RECOGNITION

2.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent of all Care Coordinators, Placement Coordinators, Education Coordinators, Professional Practice Clinical Educators, Psycho-Geriatric Resource Consultants, Specialized Geriatric Assessors, Nurse Practitioners, Advance Practice Nurses, Registered Nurses, Care Connectors, Registered Practical Nurses, Home and Community Care Therapist, Advanced Practice Clinician, Professional Practice Educators, Clinical Nurse Specialist, Hospice Palliative Consultants, and Nurses Specializing in Wound, Ostomy and Continence (NSWOC) employed by the Waterloo Wellington Local Health Integration Network, save and except Supervisors and persons above this classification and students.

2.02 Full-Time

A regular full-time employee is someone who has a regular schedule providing seventy (70) hours of work bi-weekly.

Such fixed terms or tasks will be greater than three (3) months in length, and will not normally exceed an eighteen (18) month period, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing. For the purpose of back filling pregnancy/parental leave only, the period will be twenty (20) months.

At the end of the fixed term or task the employee shall revert to their former status. When an employee accepts such an assignment they shall not be considered for another temporary assignment if accepting such assignment will require them to leave their current assignment before the end of the fixed term or task.

Such an employee is to be treated as a regular part-time employee for all purposes under the collective agreement. Notwithstanding the above, where the position is filled by an existing employee, the incumbent retains their previous "status" while filling the temporary position.

A regular part-time employee is someone who has a regular schedule of work providing less than seventy (70) hours bi-weekly.

2.05 Casual Part-Time

A casual employee is someone who:

- (b) Eighteen (18) months if replacing an employee absent on leave, or in another term position, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing.

The Employer shall not use the casual employees for the purpose of restricting the number of regular full-time or regular part-time positions. Casuals performing assignments, that were not first offered to other bargaining unit members, on the basis of seniority, may not rely on "qualifications" gained from that work in any future job postings.

ARTICLE 3 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

It is understood that the Union has carriage of all grievances.

Grievances shall be on the form set out in Appendix 1. The parties agree to utilize an electronic copy of this form for the submission of grievances.

- 8.03 Once a complaint is initiated, the parties shall have a period, not to exceed forty (40) calendar days, during which to hold meetings as necessary to discuss the issue and attempt to arrive at a resolution. In addition to the union representative, the Union's Labour Relations Officer is entitled to attend such meetings.

Where such written notice is post-marked within twelve calendar days after the above forty (40) calendar day period, it will be deemed to have been received within the time limits. The recipient of the notice shall, within ten (10) calendar days, inform the other party of its agreement or propose an alternate Sole Arbitrator in writing. If the parties are unable to agree on an Arbitrator, the appointment of the Arbitrator shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario upon the request of either party.
- (b) Notwithstanding a) above, either party can notify the other that it does not feel the grievance can be resolved directly between the parties and that it intends to refer the grievance to arbitration in which case such notice to arbitrate will not be considered premature. Extensions under this clause shall not be unreasonable withheld.

- 8.07 The Arbitrator shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a decision and the decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it.
- 8.08 The Arbitrator shall have authority only to settle disputes under the terms of this Agreement and only to interpret and apply this Agreement. The Arbitrator may take such decision as it may, in the circumstances, deem just and equitable and may vary or set aside any action relating to the grievance in question.
- 8.09 The Arbitrator shall have no power to alter, add to, subtract from, modify or amend this Agreement in order to give any decision inconsistent with it.

- 8.10 Each of the parties shall pay its own expenses including pay for witnesses and one-half of the expenses and fees of the Arbitrator.
- 8.11 Any grievance which has been disposed of hereunder or settled between the Employer, the Union or the employee(s) concerned shall be final and binding upon the Employer, Union and employee(s) involved.
- 8.12 It is understood and agreed that the parties may choose to utilize a Board of Arbitration instead of a Sole Arbitrator. In such cases each party will be responsible for their own nominees' expenses.

Where the parties agree, they will exchange names of nominees within ten (10) calendar days. The two appointees so selected shall within ten (10) calendar days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third person who shall be the Chairperson. If the parties' nominees are unable to agree on a Chairperson, or one of the parties fails to appoint a nominee, the appointment of the chair shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario upon the request of either party.

All references in Article 8 to a Sole Arbitrator shall be taken to include a Board of Arbitration.

- 8.13 At the time formal discipline is imposed or at any stage of the grievance procedure, an employee is entitled to be represented by a union representative. In the case of suspension or discharge, the Employer shall notify the employee of this right in advance. Union Representatives undertake to be reasonably available in person or by telephone for such meeting.

In cases of suspension or discharge, the Employer agrees as a matter of good labour relations practice, in most circumstances, it will also notify a local union representative.

months. Any extension to such transfer will be negotiated by the parties. An employee will only be covered for a subsequent transfer out of the bargaining unit if in the interim they had returned to and worked in a bargaining unit position for at least the same duration as their previous assignment outside the bargaining unit.

- 9.07 Where the length of seniority is the same, the date of employment acceptance will decide the most senior employee. Where the acceptance date is the same, the employee with the earliest birthday (month then day) will decide the most senior employee.

ARTICLE 10 – JOB POSTING

- 10.01 Where a position is posted, the posting shall include the following information: Full Time or Part Time Status; Job Title; Office Location; Initial Hours of Work; Initial Assignment.
- 10.02
- (a) Incumbents applying for another posted position within twelve (12) months from the date they commenced work in their present position need not be considered for such position, at the Employer's option unless the position provides for a change to their permanent status or permanent change in classification.
 - (b) When working in a temporary position and a permanent position becomes available on the same team, the employee's application will be considered. All job posting provisions will be followed.
 - (c) Employees will not be considered for further temporary vacancies until they have completed their current temporary vacancy or unless the new temporary vacancy commences after their current temporary assignment will be completed.
- 10.03
- (a) Permanent and temporary job vacancies will be posted for not less than five (5) work days, excluding the day of posting, prior to filling of the position. Such notices will be posted on the intranet. Where a vacancy under this provision has remained unfilled for a period of nine (9) months from the date of the initial posting, and the employer still requires the position to be filled, it will be reposted as noted above.
 - (b) In cases where qualifications, ability and competence are equal, seniority will be a deciding factor when decisions are made with regard to promotion and transfer.
 - (c) The most senior applicant may request a written explanation why they were not selected by submitting a written request to the Director of HR or designate within five (5) work days of being notified of being unsuccessful.
 - (d) Vacancies which are not expected to exceed six (6) months' may be filled at the discretion of the Employer. In filling such vacancies positions will be considered Temporary vacancies.
 - (e) Full time employees need not be considered for temporary vacancies of less than twelve (12) months.

10.04 Temporary Assignments

The Employer may temporarily assign an employee to a position which qualifies for posting as above, until the posting and/or external procedure has been complied with, and arrangements have been made to place the successful applicant in the permanent position.

10.05 Trial Period

If the incumbent proves unsatisfactory to the Employer during the trial period of up to forty (40) work days or such longer period as may be mutually agreed upon in writing between the Director of HR or designate, and the Union, they shall be returned to their former position without loss of seniority, and the filling of the subsequent vacancies will likewise be reversed.

If a newly hired employee filled the position vacated by the incumbent that employee will be placed into casual status, if no other suitable vacancy is available.

When the incumbent is moving into a new classification (e.g.) Placement Coordinator to Care Coordinator), the trial period will begin upon completion of the orientation.

If the employee requests, the Employer will give due consideration to returning the employee to the employee's former position, provided that the former position has not been offered to another employee or the position has been eliminated.

10.06 Delayed Start

Written requests for a delayed start date will be submitted to the Director of HR or designate with an explanation. Such requests may or may not be granted. A written reply will be given to the employee. Any extension granted will not exceed a once only maximum period of thirty (30) calendar days except at the discretion of the Employer.

10.07 Return from Leave

Employees off on an extended absence due to illness or accident of greater than twenty four (24) month period will not have the right to return to the position previously held. Their current position will be posted and when/if they return they will be offered a comparable position within the bargaining unit.

The permanent employee who temporarily filled the position during the extended absence, regardless of seniority compared to the returning employee, shall return to their former position, if available. If unavailable they may accept a vacant position in the bargaining unit or they may displace the least senior employee in the same classification, or into another classification of the bargaining unit, providing the employee possesses the necessary skill and ability to perform the work of that classification.

The least senior employee so displaced shall be given a layoff notice of at least fifteen (15) calendar days. However, should the returning employee be the least senior in the classification of the bargaining unit, they shall receive a layoff notice.

NOTE: A vacant position shall mean a position for which the posting process has been completed and no successful applicant has been hired.

ARTICLE 11 – LAYOFF AND RECALL

- 11.01 (a) A layoff of employees shall be made on the basis of seniority initially within the classification, and office, status (full time or part time), team and current hours of assignment. It is understood and agreed that prior to the laying off of any employees, probationary employees in the classification and office where the layoff is going to occur will be released first.
- Employees who are subject to layoff may bump the least senior employee of the same status, in the same classification, in any office location in the bargaining unit provided such employee has the necessary qualifications and ability to do the work required without training, other than a three (3) day orientation, except as modified in (d) below. Employees will inform the Employer of their decision to bump or accept the layoff within three (3) working days of:
- i) the Employer providing to the Union the information contemplated by Article 11.01 (e) or 11.02 (b), or
 - ii) the receipt by the employee of their notice of layoff, whichever is later.
- (b) Laid off employees are eligible, in order of seniority, for “temporary” recalls and shall advise the Employer within one business day as to whether they are interested in such recalls. Employees recalled into “temporary” recall shall not be entitled to notice of lay off nor bumping rights. Furthermore, the time used to determine the employee’s entitlement for continuing in the benefits program, for recall, and for other purposes under the layoff or seniority clauses shall be frozen during the period of temporary recall, and shall begin to accumulate again when the temporary recall ends. Employees temporarily recalled will be paid the percentage in lieu of benefits unless they maintained benefits in which case the employer shall pay the full employer contribution to benefits. Otherwise employees temporarily recalled have all the rights of other recalled employees.
- (c) Full time and Regular Part-Time laid off employees may elect to have access to shifts that would otherwise be offered on a casual basis. Such employees will inform the Employer of their election within three (3) working days of notice of layoff. The process of offering the shifts would be in accordance with the current practice for offering casual shifts. The refusal of casual shifts would not affect their status as a laid off employee. The time used to determine the employee’s entitlement for continuing in the benefits program, for recall, and for other purposes under the layoff or seniority clauses would be unaffected during the periods of time worked.
- (d) Recall to a regular part-time or regular full-time position shall be in order of seniority. An employee will respond to a registered notice of recall within seven (7) calendar days or receipt of same and shall be available for work within an additional fourteen (14) days unless otherwise agreed.

- (e) For layoffs other than long term layoffs, the Employer and Union will meet and discuss the layoffs at the earliest opportunity. This discussion will include the service which the Employer will undertake after the layoff.
- (f) In exercising bumping and recall rights in long term layoff situations each employee is entitled to an orientation of up to ten (10) working days in order to assist her/him to meet the staffing requirements of the employer.
- (g) For greater certainty, laid off employees are entitled to apply for posted vacancies.

11.02 Permanent or Long-Term Layoff

In the event of a pending lay-off of a permanent or long-term nature, the Employer will:

- (a) Provide the Union with ninety (90) days' notice;
- (b) Meet with the Union to review the following:
 - i) the reason causing the lay-off;
 - ii) the service which the Employer will undertake after the lay-off;
 - iii) the method of implementation, including areas of cutback and the employees to be laid off;
 - iv) methods of reducing the impact of the lay-off, which may include reducing hours rather than laying off employees. Any such methods require the agreement of the Union. Where the Employer can demonstrate that a reduction in hours, or some other alternative to lay-off (except alternatives involving reductions in compensation) is in the best interest of the Employer's patients, agreement on the alternatives will not be unreasonably withheld.

It is understood that permanent or long-term nature means a lay-off which will be longer than thirteen (13) weeks.

11.03 Notice of Layoff

Notice of lay-off shall be given to each affected individual and will not be less than that provided under the Employment Standards Act, and shall not be less than thirty (30) days.

11.04 Severance

Severance pay will be paid in accordance with the Employment Standards Act.

11.05 Benefit Coverage

An employee, upon long-term layoff, at their own expense, and except for short and long-term sickness and income protection, may continue benefit coverage for a period of nine (9) months following the layoff by arranging to pay the full premiums, in advance, on a quarterly basis.

11.06 Bargaining Unit Executive

- (a) In order that the operations of the Union will not be disorganized when layoffs are being made, members of the local Union executive i.e. Bargaining Unit President and Co-ordinator, be the last employees laid-off during their term of office, as long as full-time employment for which they already possess the necessary qualifications, ability, and competence is available.
- (b) In the case of a change in the Bargaining Unit executive during a layoff, written notice shall be given to the Employer and the Employer shall have five (5) work days from the receipt of the written notification to make any changes necessary to apply this clause to the new Bargaining Unit executive, and to terminate its application to the person(s) removed from the executive. If any notice to any person being laid off as a consequence, is required by legislation, the period of notice will be in addition to the five (5) work days, specified herein, and layoff(s) and recall(s) will not be effective until expiry of the notice period required by legislation.

11.07 The Employer agrees not to assign Bargaining Unit work to employees who are outside of the Bargaining Unit, except in cases of emergency.

ARTICLE 12 – EMPLOYEE FILES

12.01 Any letter of reprimand, suspension or other sanction or counselling letter will be removed from the record of an employee eighteen (18) months following the receipt of such letter, suspension or other sanction provided that such employee's record has been discipline free for eighteen (18) months. If there is another reprimand, suspension or sanction during the eighteen (18) month period, the prior reprimand, suspension or other sanction shall remain on the employee's record for the duration of the period pertaining to the new discipline. Leaves of absence in excess of thirty (30) continuous calendar days will not count towards the time periods noted above.

12.02 Notice of discharge shall be provided to the employee with a copy to the Grievance Chair. Where an employee is discharged verbally, the above notification will be sent to the employee by registered mail to the last known address on file with the Employer and Grievance Chair per Article 8.15.

ARTICLE 13 – LEAVES OF ABSENCE

13.01 (a) Union Leave

Leave of absence without pay shall be granted to employees selected by the Union to attend Union conventions or conferences, or Union business, provided that the leave does not unduly interfere with the operations of the Employer.

The cumulative total leave of absence and the number of days is determined by the local parties. Such time shall not exceed a total of eighty (80) workdays in any calendar year and not more than seven (7) employees shall be permitted to be absent at any one time.

Such request is to be made fourteen (14) calendar days in advance, where practicable, in writing by the Union. Such leave will not be unreasonably denied. Where it is normal practice, the Employer will endeavour to replace any employee who is on leave for Union business by another employee covered by the Collective Agreement. During such leave of absence, an employee's salary and applicable benefits or percentage in lieu of benefits shall be maintained by the Employer and the local Union agrees to reimburse the Employer in the amount of the salary of the employee. Employees will receive service and seniority credit for all leaves granted under this Article.

(b) Leave for Local Coordinator

Employees elected as Local Co-ordinator or to the Board of Directors of the Ontario Nurses' Association, other than to the Office of President, shall be granted leave without pay to attend to Union business, provided such leave of absence does not interfere with efficient operations. The aggregate total will be fifty (50) days annually. There shall be no loss of service or seniority. Leave of absence under this provision shall be in addition to the Union leave provided in Article (a) above. Two (2) week's notice shall be given where practicable. Such leaves shall not be unreasonably denied.

During such leave of absence, an employee's salary and applicable benefits or percentage in lieu of benefits shall be maintained by the Employer and the Union agrees to reimburse the Employer in the amount of the salary and applicable benefits (or percentage in lieu of benefits) of the employee. Employees will receive service and seniority credit for all leaves granted under this Article.

Notwithstanding Article 9.05, there shall be no loss of service or seniority for an employee during such leave of absence. During such leave of absence, the employee's salary and applicable benefits (or percentage in lieu of benefits) shall be maintained by the Employer and the Union agrees to reimburse the Employer in the amount of the full cost of such salary and applicable benefits (or percentage in lieu of benefits). It is understood, however, that during such leave the employee shall be deemed to be an employee of the Ontario Nurses' Association. The employee agrees to notify the Employer of their intention to return to work at least two (2) weeks prior to the date of such return.

Notwithstanding the above, the Employer and the Union may make alternate arrangements in respect to salary and benefit continuation.

13.02 Personal Leave

The Employer may grant a request for leave of absence for personal reasons without pay provided that they receive reasonable notice of at least thirty (30) days in writing, unless not possible, subject to the operational requirements of the employer. Employees when applying for such leave shall indicate the proposed date of departure, the reason for the leave, and the date of return. Such requests will not be unreasonably denied.

13.03 Bereavement Leave

- (a) Upon the death of an employee's spouse (spouse to include same sex partner), parent, child or stepchild, an employee shall be granted leave with pay up to a maximum of five (5) consecutive calendar days. Where there is a funeral but the employee cannot attend by reason of religion or other protected grounds under the Ontario Human Rights Code, the employee shall be granted one (1) day bereavement leave without loss of pay to attend an equivalent service within a week following the funeral.
- (e) Where it is necessary, because of distance, the employee may apply for additional leave with or without pay. Permission for such leave shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- (f) The intent of this Article is not to convert an unpaid leave into a paid leave. For the purposes of this clause only, sick leave greater than thirty (30) days and LTD, are deemed to be unpaid leave.
- (g) The provisions of the sick leave plan apply to an illness continuous with a compassionate leave of absence. A medical certificate is required to substantiate such an illness.
- (h) Where an employee's scheduled vacation is interrupted due to a bereavement, the employee shall be entitled to bereavement leave in accordance with this Article.

Care leave will include all purposes under Section 50(1) paragraph 2 & 3 of the Employment Standards Act, 2000. Employees accrue seniority and service while on such leave.

To clarify, this Article, and other clauses in the current agreement that provide for paid or unpaid leaves for purposes under ESA provisions, will be deemed to offset the requirement of the employer.

13.05 Family Medical Leave

A request for Family Medical Leave will be granted in accordance with the ESA for up to twenty-eight (28) weeks within a fifty-two (52) week period.

An employee who is on Family Medical Leave shall continue to accumulate seniority and service and both the employer and employee will continue to pay their respective shares of the benefit and pension premiums in which the employee is participating during the leave.

Parental leave shall be granted for up to sixty-one (61) weeks in duration (63 weeks when pregnancy leave is not taken).
- (f) An employee that has taken a Pregnancy Leave under this Article is eligible to be granted a parental leave of up to sixty-one (61) weeks duration, in accordance with the Employment Standards Act. Such payment shall commence following completion of the Employment Insurance waiting period, and receipt by the Employer of the employee's Employment Insurance remittance statement as proof that they are in receipt of Employment Insurance pregnancy benefits, and shall continue while the employee is in receipt of such benefits for a maximum period of fifteen (15) weeks. The employee's regular weekly earnings shall be determined by multiplying her

- (i) For purposes of clarity, employees in receipt of short-term disability payments are on a leave with pay and are, therefore, not subject to the "effect of absence" clause.

The Union and the Employer agree to abide by the Human Rights Code.

- 16.01 For the purpose of calculating vacations and eligibility, the vacation year shall be from January 1st to December 31st each year.
- 16.02 If an employee works or receives paid leave for less than 1500 hours in the vacation year they will receive vacation pay based on a percentage of their gross salary for work performed on the following basis:
- 3 week entitlement -6%
 - 4 week entitlement -8%
 - 5 week entitlement -10%
 - 6 week entitlement -12%
 - 7 week entitlement -14%

Once a full time member returns to the workplace from their leave and will not work

1500 hours within that vacation year they will be able to earn vacation days on a go forward basis at the level of entitlement, instead of receiving percentage in lieu.

The parties agree that when a full time member goes off on a leave and is not expected to work 1500 hours in that vacation year all currently earned and unused vacation will be frozen and used once the member returns to the workplace.

16.03 (a) Each employee shall be entitled to an annual vacation with pay as follows:

Up to 1 year of service	Prorated at 1.25 days/mo
-------------------------	--------------------------

Following completion of:

1 continuous year of service	3 weeks (15 days)

The new vacation eligibility category in this Article shall apply the following vacation year.

For vacation purposes, any employee who commences employment before the 15th day of any month shall be considered as having worked the full month.

Each employee's vacation entitlement shall be taken in the calendar year in which it is earned except as outlined in 16.04 (d).

An employee whose employment is terminated for any reason, shall have any vacation taken but not earned deducted from any payments owing to the employee, or shall repay the Employer should the amount be greater than any payments owing.

16.04 (a) Employees shall take their vacation at a mutually agreeable time and will be scheduled so as to provide a fair distribution of the number of employees absent at any one time. Requests for vacation shall not be unreasonably denied provided efficient operations can be maintained.

(b) The following provisions are intended for staff to plan their annual vacation entitlement. Vacation requests are to be reviewed within the team or group with the purpose of achieving team consensus while meeting minimum staffing levels as set by Patient Services.

i) Individual vacation requests will be submitted by February 1st for the vacation period of April 1st to September 30th. Individual requests will be approved by March 1st.

- ii) Individual vacation requests will be submitted by August 1st for the vacation period of October 1st to March 31st. Individual requests will be approved by September 1st.
- iii) Vacation requests submitted after the February 1st and August 1st dates above will be considered in order of the date submitted but such requests will not take precedence over the approved vacation schedule. The Employer will respond to vacation requests submitted within ten (10) business days of receiving such request.

Each team/group will ensure that caseload issues are adequately managed such that urgent patient concerns are addressed within established practices. Each team may request assistance in coverage from another team. Each team/group will collaborate with their Manager regarding their plan for coverage over vacation periods.

- (c) If there is a conflict in granting vacation requests, seniority will govern for requests totalling no more than four (4) weeks each year, two in each six month vacation submission, per employee. The minimum request under this clause is a block of seven (7) calendar days (which will at least cover one (1) vacation week according to the Employer's practice).
- (d) Employees have the right to carry over up to a maximum of five (5) days vacation entitlement to the next vacation year. In exceptional circumstances, Employees who wish to carry over up to a maximum of ten (10) days vacation entitlement will receive written permission from the Manager and will use the additional days within the first quarter of the vacation year.
- (e) Subject to regulations of the Employment Standards Act, vacations must be taken within a twelve (12) month period following the January 1st eligibility date and shall not be accumulated.
- (f) Vacation shall not be taken during the orientation or probationary period unless approved at the discretion of the Employer.

16.05 An employee whose employment is terminated for any reason, shall be entitled to a final vacation payment covering vacation earned but not taken.

16.06 Where an employee's scheduled vacation is interrupted or interfered with due to serious personal illness, as certified by a medical certificate, the period of such illness shall be considered sick leave.

16.07 Part-time Employees:

All part-time employees shall be entitled to vacation pay based upon the percentage of their gross earnings during the current pay period, paid on each pay, in accordance with the vacation entitlement of full-time employees. Employees shall be entitled to receive the corresponding unpaid time off for vacation purposes.

The LHIN operates seven (7) days per week, including holidays. Currently the following schedules are in place throughout the organization to meet patient services needs for specific teams. Whereas the Employer provides services to eligible patients on evenings, weekends, and paid holidays and whereas the demand of those services now requires regular coverage, the parties agree as follows:

- (a) The Employer shall schedule both 11.25-hour and 7-hour shifts. Where the parties wish to introduce other shift options (including the use of Full-Time Weekend Worker), the Parties will meet to discuss the options and the effect of such options on the collective agreement and applicable legislation.
- (b) Weekend and paid holiday positions shall be posted. However, casual part-time employees may be used to replace an employee who is unavailable for their shift due to illness, vacation or required time off.
- (c) Notice to change regularly scheduled required start times by up to 60 minutes will be 30 days.
- (d) The following parameters shall apply:

Stat Holidays	Paid at 1.5 and cannot pyramid on any other premiums.

17.02 Normal hours of work are stated only for calculating overtime and shall not be construed as a guarantee of any minimum or any maximum hours to be worked and the Employer does not guarantee to provide employment or work for normal hours or for any other hours.

17.03 Employees who are unable to assume their normal duties on any work day must notify their, Manager or Designate as early as possible prior to the commencement of their regular shift.

17.04 The Employer may offer new employees, or offer existing employees, positions that cover the hours of operation required to meet service demands.

Where positions need to be altered in order to cover the required hours of operation and the positions cannot be filled with additional staffing resources, and where there are insufficient volunteers for the positions, the Employer will discuss with the union and representatives of the staffing group to generate solutions.

- (a) Schedules will be posted four (4) weeks in advance for a four (4) week period. No changes will be made to the posted schedule unless mutually agreed to by the parties or an employee posts into a different position.
- (b) Regular part-time employees will make their intention to work additional shifts known to the scheduling person in writing (email is acceptable) at least four (4) weeks prior to the posting of the schedule. Every reasonable effort will be made to accommodate requests for additional shifts of regular part-time employees prior to scheduling casual part-time employees.
- (c) Where employees are required to work weekends, those employees that are required to work weekends shall do so on a rotational basis and shall not be required to work more than two (2) weekends in six (6), of which no two (2) weekends will be consecutive unless mutually agreed. An employee who is scheduled to work in excess of the above will be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) times their regular hourly rate for all hours worked on such additional weekend(s).

A weekend is defined as any hours between midnight Friday and 0800 hours Monday.

- (d) The exchange of shifts between employees shall not result in overtime or other additional compensation not otherwise payable. The Employer shall not be held liable for any violation of the collective agreement arising out of the mutual exchange of shifts between employees.
- (e) Employees who work normal daily tours (seven (7) hours) shall receive a minimum of twelve (12) hours off between shifts unless otherwise agreed. The Employer will endeavour to provide sixteen (16) hours off between shifts.
- (f) No employee shall be required to work more than six (6) consecutive days unless otherwise agreed.
- (g) There shall be no split days off.
- (h) There shall be no split shifts.

- (i) Requests for specific shifts, days off or other scheduling requests shall be made in writing at least four (4) weeks prior to the posting of the schedules. Vacation will be approved in accordance with the provisions of 16.04. Once a schedule is posted employees will be responsible to ensure that the shifts scheduled are covered by trading or finding alternate coverage, or must work the shift. Notification of traded shifts or replacements must be provided to the scheduling position within Human Resources, as soon as a change is made.

Self-scheduling for replacements would not apply for emergency replacements ie. Illness, family leave, bereavement.

- (j) Preference for time off approvals will occur in the following order:
 - i) Vacation
 - ii) Paid holiday time
 - iii) Compensating time
 - iv) Unpaid time

- (l) When an employee accepts an additional shift, they must report for that shift unless arrangements satisfactory to the employer are made.
- (m) Shifts available on statutory holidays will be made available to regular part-time employees on a seniority basis before assigning them to casual employees.
- (n) Short Notice Coverage and Availability List

In the event that there are unforeseen absences through the regular work week at the Hospital and Intake teams, for clarification the regular work week would be an absence(s) in the current work week, the call-in procedure will be as follows:

- (i) There will be an availability list for part-time and casual staff for each hospital site and intake team where they will identify evenings where they would be available to pick up additional hours/shifts at straight time.
- (ii) Should there be no part time or casual staff available for the specific Hospital site or intake team, other sites/teams will be contacted for their list of available part time or casual staff at straight time who are trained and willing to work at that site.
- (iii) If no part time or casual staff are available at straight time the following procedure for offering over time (time and one half) will be utilized, Full Time, Part Time and Casual staff who are trained and available. Overtime will be offered simultaneously to these employees and the shift will be offered to the first staff who responded to the offer of work. It is understood that the Employer does not have to offer over time hours where there are available trained staff at straight time.

17.06 Flex Time

- (a) Flex time shall be defined as flexible hours of work up to a maximum of 2 hours per day variance from the normal schedule. The flex hours shall be reconciled within the pay period and the variance to the normal work day shall be no greater than 1 hour before the normal start and 1 hour after the normal end.
- (b) Where an employee requests to work flex time and provides the plan to make up the time, such request shall be considered based on operational needs and will not be unreasonably denied, provided pre-approval from the Manager for flex time greater than one (1) hour. This will not provide employees with the ability to permanently alter their start or end times and the flex time will be recorded in their work calendar.
- (c) The scheduling of the flex hours of work shall be jointly established by the Manager and the employee to ensure required service is maintained and that the hours of work per clause (a) are adhered to.
- (d) Where an employee works in excess of seven (7) hours in a day they will attempt to flex their hours, such that the hours of work will not usually exceed seventy (70) hours in a pay period.
- (e) There will be no split shifts unless mutually agreed to by the employee and the Manager.

17.07 11.25 Hour Shifts

The parties agree to establish an 11.25-hour shift schedule.

- (a) The position(s) will be scheduled for six 11.25-hour shifts in bi-weekly pay period.

During a 11.25 hour shift employees will be provided with forty-five (45) minutes of paid break time and forty-five (45) minutes of unpaid meal break.
- (b) The incumbent(s) will receive regular salary for seventy (70) hours per pay period.
- (c) For the purpose of covering the employee's vacation or incidental absences shifts less than 11.25 hours may need to be scheduled.
- (d) It is expected that from time to time the employee may need to be scheduled or have an adjusted schedule on days off to attend necessary inservice programs.
- (e) Overtime will be paid at the appropriate rate after 67.5 hours worked in a pay period. Overtime can be taken in payment or taken in compensating lieu time.

- (i) Other than premium for paid holidays worked, no additional payment will be made for the statutory and paid holidays. The payment for the statutory and paid holidays not worked is included in the 1.25-hour per week premium built in to this position, per (b) above. The employee will be entitled to two (2) floating holidays (11.25 hr x 2) with pay, per the qualifying provisions of the Collective Agreement. Paid holidays will be included as part of the regular schedule for incumbents on this shift. Paid holidays may be requested off per the scheduling language outlined in the Collective Agreement, using vacation, lieu or unpaid.
- (j) Vacation will accrue on an equivalent basis to regular full-time employees (eg. A normal annual vacation entitlement of 140 hours or four weeks would be equivalent to 135 hours for the incumbent in this position).
- (k) Seniority and service will accrue on the basis of 1500 hours is equivalent to one year.
- (l) Sick leave and vacation leave will be taken in actual hours.
- (m) Any and all terms and conditions of the Collective Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, except as amended by this Article.
- (n) Introduction into any team when:
 - i. The union and the employer mutually agree to implement 11.25 hour shifts; and
 - ii. Seventy percent (70%) of the members on the team so indicate by secret ballot.
- (o) Discontinuation

Either party may discontinue the 11.25 hour arrangement by providing written notice to the other party. The parties shall meet within two (2) weeks to review the reasons for discontinuation; affected members shall be given a minimum of sixty (60) days notice before the schedules are so amended.

Contemporary Part-Time

The parties agree to a 0.8 FTE Contemporary Part-time position with the following conditions:

- (a) An employee working a contemporary part-time position shall be scheduled a reduced average weekly work assignment consisting of eight days scheduled to work in a biweekly period.

- (b) Employment conditions shall be on a prorated basis to those of a regular full time employee. Only those employees who are of early retirement age, who were full time when accepting the 0.8 position, shall be eligible for any early retirement benefits upon their retirement, on the prorated basis.
- (c) Pension contributions shall be made on a prorated basis.
- (d) Benefit coverage will be on a prorated basis as compared to other fulltime employees, e.g. where the employer pays one hundred (100%) percent for health and welfare benefits for other fulltime employees, the employees working in a contemporary part-time arrangement will pay twenty (20%) of the premium.
- (e) Vacation entitlement shall be prorated to reflect the reduced average weekly work assignment. (i.e. an entitlement of 30 days vacation/year is prorated to 24 days).
- (f) Employees working in a contemporary part-time arrangement will accumulate seniority on hours paid, with the calculation that 1500 hours equals one year of seniority.
- (g) One contemporary part time arrangement will consist of five part-time people on a rotation, four that work in a consistent position and one (1) that floats to each position, providing consistent relief on the other partners' normal days off. The normal days off will rotate among the five partners.
- (h) In order to develop a new contemporary part time arrangement, five full time employees may partner to propose the arrangement and the resulting full time vacancy will be posted. Where the number of volunteers to a rotation proposal is greater than the number of positions available, seniority will be deciding factor. The number of arrangements will be at the Employer's discretion subject to operational requirements but will not be unreasonably denied.
- (i) All partners must either be in the same classification or have the necessary skills, qualifications and competency to be able to cover for the other partners in their rotation.
- (j) Contemporary part time positions are not eligible for job sharing.

Vacancies

- (k) If one of the partners leaves the rotation, the remaining partners will have the opportunity to convert the positions to full time. If the remaining partners wish to continue with the contemporary part-time arrangement, the vacated position will be posted and filled in accordance with the Collective Agreement.
- (l) Where there is no successful applicant to a vacant portion of a rotation, including an external hire, the positions shall revert to full-time status. If the remaining partners do not wish to revert to full-time then the bumping provisions of Article 11 apply.
- (m) If one of the partners leaves the rotation for a temporary period, the remaining partners will be offered the opportunity to revert the positions to full time for the temporary period or the position will be posted for a temporary contemporary part-time partner. If no internal temporary partner is found, the vacancy will be assigned to staff who work Regular Part Time, Casual, or who work floating shifts for the temporary period.

Review

- (n) The Employer and the employees involved retain the right to assess the contemporary part-time arrangement on an ongoing basis.

Termination

- (o) Either party may discontinue the contemporary part-time arrangement with sixty (60) days notice. The Employer may exercise this right only after the completion of a review as identified in the previous paragraph. Upon receipt of such notice a meeting will be held between the parties to discuss the discontinuation. It is understood that such discontinuation will not be unreasonable or arbitrary. It is further understood that it is not unreasonable to discontinue the arrangement if its costs are greater than the costs for regular full-time positions and those excess costs are not outweighed by the benefits of the contemporary part-time arrangement to the Employer.

Innovative Scheduling

Schedules which are inconsistent with the Collective Agreement provisions may be developed in order to improve quality of working life, support continuity of patient care, ensure adequate staffing resources, and support cost-efficiency. The parties agree that such innovative schedules may be determined by the Employer and the Union subject to the following principles:

- (a) Such schedules shall be established by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union;
- (b) These schedules may pertain to full-time and/or part-time employees;
- (c) The introduction of such schedules and trial periods, if any, shall be determined by the parties. Such schedules may be discontinued by either party with notice as determined by the Letter of Understanding negotiated by both parties;
- (d) It is understood and agreed that these arrangements are based on individual circumstances and each agreement is made on a without prejudice or precedent basis.

ARTICLE 18 – PREMIUM PAYMENT AND OTHER ALLOWANCES

- (a) Overtime at time and one-half to be paid after seventy (70) hours bi-weekly. Overtime for employees working less than full-time hours shall be paid at time and one-half and shall be based on time worked in excess of their regularly scheduled shift.

All other compensating time off shall be on a time and one-half basis. In calculating the normal work week, a paid holiday will be considered time worked, but time worked for which an overtime premium applies will not be included in the calculation. Compensating time off shall be computed and include travelling up to a maximum of one (1) hour. If compensating time off is taken it shall be arranged at a mutually convenient time of the employee and the Manager. The maximum amount of compensating time off which may be accumulated at any given time is the equivalent of five (5) work days. Once overtime bank reaches the maximum amount of hours, payroll will notify the employee's manager who will discuss options with the employee to address the excess time. It is the intent of the foregoing that overtime premium will only be paid for time actually worked in excess of their regularly scheduled shift. The Employer shall not require an employee working overtime to take compensating time off during that pay period.

- (b) Overtime requires employer approval in advance unless impossible. The Employer will ensure that it has a representative to deal with requests for overtime approval. Approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- (c) Overtime cannot be unreasonably imposed on the employee. Direction to work beyond the normal length of a daily tour will not be unreasonably refused by an employee.
- (d) Overtime premiums will not pyramid under any circumstances.
- (e) Employees will not be laid off during their scheduled hours of work for the sole purpose of avoiding overtime pay.

An employee who is called in or reports for work as scheduled, where there is no work available, and or accepts a request to work on a scheduled day off, shall receive a minimum of four (4) hours pay, it being understood that such employee may be assigned to work elsewhere in the LHIN during such four (4) hour period. Such reassignment will be within reasonable proximity of the employee's office.

An employee who is not scheduled to work and is required by the Employer to attend and does attend a staff education or inservice meeting shall be given scheduled working time off in lieu at some other time without loss of pay, or at the option of the employee, receive pay at straight time with a minimum guarantee of three and one half (3½) hours pay.

18.03 Call Back

When an employee who is not on standby has completed their regularly scheduled shift and left work and is called back to work where they have to work outside of their home, prior to the commencement of the shift on the next day, they shall receive time and one-half (1 ½) their regular rate of pay for all hours worked with a minimum of four (4) hours at their regular rate of pay, unless such call back occurs less than four (4) hours prior to their normal start time, in which case they shall receive time and one half for all hours worked prior to their normal start time.

18.04 Meal Allowance

Where an employee works three (3) or more continuous hours, continuous with the regular work day, the employee shall be eligible for a meal allowance of ten dollars ($10.00).

18.05 Transportation

Employees required to operate their automobile in the course of their duties shall be entitled to reimbursement as follows:

Effective at ratification

$0.49 per approved km driven

For the purposes of calculating kilometers travelled, employees will calculate from the office to which they are assigned. If it is closer and approved by the Manager, for an employee to travel from home to an assignment, then mileage will be calculated from home to the point of call. At the end of the day, travel will be calculated from the last call to the office, or the employee's home, whichever is shorter. Mileage and expense claims are to be made within three (3) months of the month being claimed, within one month at March year end.

18.06 Effective the first pay period after ratification, where the Employer assigns an Employee to a mentor/preceptor role they will receive a premium of sixty cents ($0.60) per hour.

18.07 Shift and Weekend Premium and Standby

(a) An employee who is requested to work a weekend beyond what is permitted under the normal hours of operation provisions of the Collective Agreement, shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked on such weekend, unless such weekend work is the result of:

- i) the employee being hired to work primarily weekends; or
- ii) they work the weekend as a result of a shift exchange, or at their request.

Time worked on such weekend, shall not be used to determine premium pay for future weekends.

It is agreed that the weekend premium will apply to hours worked after midnight on Friday and up to midnight on Sunday.

- (b) Hours compensated under clause (a) above shall not also be compensated under weekend premium. Hours that are paid daily overtime shall not be used to trigger a bi-weekly overtime claim.
- (c) An employee who is required to remain available for duty on standby shall receive standby pay in the amount of three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) per hour, for the period of standby scheduled by the Employer. Where such standby duty falls on a paid holiday, as set out in the collective agreement, the employee shall receive standby pay in the amount of four dollars and fifty cents ($4.50) per hour. If an employee is called to work from standby they shall receive a minimum of four (4) hours pay at their regular rate of pay. The employee shall cease receiving standby premium for those hours that they work under the preceding sentence.

An Employee will execute any and all documentation necessary to give effect to this provision and ensure repayment to the Employer.

The parties agree to discuss this matter without undue delay.

ARTICLE 21 – JOB SHARING

- 21.01 The intent of a job sharing agreement is to provide the opportunity for employees to share a full-time position. The following will apply to any job sharing arrangement.
- 21.02 The number of job sharing arrangements will be subject to mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.
- 21.03 Job sharing requests shall be considered on an individual basis and shall be initiated through a written application by a full-time employee who wishes to share the position.
- 21.04 Vacancies
- (a) Upon the termination of the job sharing arrangement, the position will revert back to a full-time position.
 - (b) If both applicants to a job share are full-time, the job share position need not be posted. The resulting full-time position shall be posted in accordance with the Collective Agreement.
 - (c) If a job share partner is not identified at the time the job share application is made, the other portion of the job share position shall be posted and filled in accordance with the Collective Agreement.
 - (d) If one of the job sharers leaves the position, the remaining job sharer will have the opportunity to convert the position to full time. If both the remaining job sharer and the Employer wish to continue with the job sharing arrangement, the vacated portion of the job share will be posted and filled in accordance with the Collective Agreement.
 - (e) In the case of two or more vacant job shares in the same classification there will be no expectation to recruit externally; the two vacancies will be posted internally. If there are no successful internal candidates the two remaining employees will be partnered. Where the partners cannot agree on which position to share, seniority will be the deciding factor.
 - (f) Where there is no successful applicant to a vacant portion of a job share position, the position shall revert to its full-time status. If the remaining job sharer does not wish to continue in the full-time position they apply to any posted vacancies or displace the least senior job sharer in the same classification unless there is no job sharer junior to them in the classification in which case they could displace the least senior job sharer in the bargaining unit unless there is no job sharer in the bargaining unit junior to them in which case they would convert their status to casual part-time.

- (g) If one of the job sharers leaves the position for a temporary period, the remaining partner will be offered the opportunity to revert the position to full time for the temporary period or the position will be posted for a temporary job share partner. If no internal temporary job share partner is found, the job share vacancy will be assigned to staff who do casual or floating shifts for the temporary period

The Employer and the employees involved retain the right to assess the job sharing arrangement on an ongoing basis.

21.06 Termination

Either party may discontinue the job sharing process with sixty (60) days notice. The Employer may exercise this right only after the completion of a review as identified in the previous paragraph. Upon receipt of such notice a meeting will be held between the parties to discuss the discontinuation. It is understood that such discontinuation will not be unreasonable or arbitrary. It is further understood that it is not unreasonable to discontinue job sharing if its costs are greater than the costs for a regular full-time position and those excess costs are not outweighed by the benefits of job sharing to the Employer.

21.07 Treatment Exceptions

Each job sharer shall be treated as a regular part-time employee for all purposes under the Collective Agreement except as otherwise expressly provided:

- (a) Work one half of the total number of hours of the full-time position, or such other amount as may be agreed by all the parties, with the actual schedule of work to be determined by the employees involved, subject to approval by the Manager.
- (b) i) Ensure both members of the job share team are fully informed in respect of each others work, and those LHIN communications that are not generally distributed but rather are only issued to attendees at individual meetings.
- ii) For meetings, only the employee who is scheduled to work that day will be required to attend. Their partner shall be responsible to keep themselves abreast of the meeting details.
- iii) If the partner not scheduled to work wishes to attend the meeting, they may attend with the approval of the Manager and will be paid at straight time rates.

- iv) New job share lines commencing after the date of ratification of the Waterloo March 31, 2007 Collective Agreement will be expected to cover their partner's planned short-term absences of up to four weeks duration. If, because of unavoidable circumstances, one cannot cover the other, the Manager must be notified as soon as possible to arrange coverage.

It is understood and agreed that the provision of the above noted letter in no way obligates the employer to amend, alter or augment existing insurance coverage or to obtain or maintain insurance coverage beyond what is required by applicable legislation or regulation.

22.04 If a Regulated Health Professional or Registered Social Worker is advised or notified that they are not a member in good standing with their College for any reason including non-payment of the annual fee, the employee will notify the Employer immediately and will be placed on non-disciplinary suspension without pay. If the employee presents evidence that their Registration has been reinstated, they shall be reinstated to their position effective upon presenting such evidence. Failure to provide evidence within ninety (90) calendar days of the employee being placed on non-disciplinary suspension by the Employer will result in the employee being deemed to be no longer qualified and the employee shall be terminated with cause from the employ of the Employer unless there are extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the employee. Such termination shall not be the subject of a grievance or arbitration subject to the provisions of the Ontario Human Rights Code.

22.05 Flu Vaccine

Upon a recommendation pertaining to a facility to which our employees attend, or a specifically designated area(s) thereof, or to specific staff, from the Medical Officer of Health, or in compliance with applicable Provincial Legislation, the following rules will apply:

- (a) Employees shall, subject to the following, be required to be vaccinated for influenza.
- (b) If the full cost of such medication is not covered by some other source, the Employer will pay the full or incremental cost for the vaccine and will endeavour to offer vaccinations during an employee's working hours. In addition, employees will be provided with information, including risks and side effects, regarding the vaccine.
- (c) The Employer recognizes that employees have the right to refuse any required vaccination.
- (d) If an employee refuses to take the vaccine required under this provision, they may be placed on an unpaid leave of absence during any influenza outbreak that affects the workplace of the employee until such time as the employee is cleared to return to work. If an employee is placed on unpaid leave, they can use banked lieu time or vacation credits in order to keep their pay whole.
- (e) If an employee refuses to take the vaccine because it is medically contraindicated, and where a medical certificate is provided to this effect, they will be reassigned during the outbreak period.
- (f) If an employee becomes ill as a result of the vaccination, and applies for WSIB, the Employer will not unreasonably oppose the claim.
- (g) Notwithstanding the above, the Employer may offer the vaccine on a voluntary basis to employees free of charge.
- (h) This clause shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with the Ontario Human Rights Code.

The Employer shall give employees other than probationary employees not less than fourteen (14) calendar days written notice of termination of employment or pay in lieu thereof except in cases of discharge for cause not reversed through the grievance procedure. The written notice shall give the reason for such termination.
- (b) The Employer will provide to each employee upon termination of employment, within fourteen (14) calendar days a letter detailing their employment dates, length of service, and hours worked.

If requested, the Employer agrees to meet with the Union to permit it to make representations with respect to the appropriate rate of pay providing any such meeting shall not delay the implementation of the new classification. within seven (7) calendar days following any such meeting. If the matter is not resolved in the Grievance Procedure, it may be referred to Arbitration, it being understood that an Arbitration Board shall be limited to establishing an appropriate rate based on the relationship existing amongst other classifications within the Employer and duties and responsibilities involved.

Any change in the rate established by the Employer either through meetings with the Union or by a Board of Arbitration shall be made retroactive to the time at which the new or changed classification was first filled.

RE: COMPRESSED WORK WEEK SCHEDULE FOR RAPID RESPONSE NURSE

Whereas the Employer is moving to a seven (7) day rotation for this team.

Whereas the Employer plans to implement a compressed work week schedule for the 6 positions on the 7- position team.

Whereas the Parties agree to the following principles for the Compressed Work Week schedule:

1. The overtime premium as set out in Article 18.01 shall be paid for all hours in excess of seven and one half (7.5) hours scheduled on that day or 70 hours bi-weekly averaged over the duration of a six (6) week schedule. In each bi-weekly pay period the employee will be paid for all hours worked plus any overtime hours over and above the master schedule.
2. A vote will be held by secret ballot for the members effected by the compressed work week regarding their agreement to work with a schedule that has split days off on it. The vote will be run by the union and will be held by July 23, 2018.
3. Once the vote has been completed, each member will have until July 27, 2018 to review the master schedule and select the line in which they would like to be assigned. The members will select their line on the approved master schedule according to seniority.
4. Currently, only six (6) lines on the master schedule will be scheduled to perform weekend work. Notwithstanding, coverage for a member in one of these lines will be the exception. To be clear, the seven (7) hour position or the unassigned will not be included in the mastered weekend schedule. However, they will be requested to cover planned leaves. The member working in this line will submit non-availability for specific weekends by the 15th of the month prior to the schedule being posted. The member must be available to work at least 2 weekends per month. For the seven (7) hour line all scheduling provisions will apply. In each bi-weekly pay period the employee will be paid for all hours worked plus any overtime hours over and above the master schedule; 70 hours bi-weekly may be averaged over the duration of a six (6) week schedule.
5. The new schedule will take effect September 1, 2018.

6. For the implementation of the schedule if any member is more than six (6) consecutive shifts the member will receive a day off. This will not apply to mutual exchanges of shifts between employees.
7. Either party may discontinue the compressed work week schedule with sixty (60) days' notice. Upon receipt of such notice a meeting will be held between the parties to discuss the discontinuation. It is understood that such discontinuation will not be unreasonable to arbitrary.
8. It is understood that any employee who is absent from work for any reason except for paid holidays, shall be deemed to be off for seven and one-half (7.5) hours.
