Where an employee has insufficient unencumbered earnings during the first payroll period, the deduction shall be made in the next payroll period where the employee has sufficient unencumbered earnings within that month. The Parties acknowledge that union dues are not applicable to any month during which an employee has no earnings. The Union shall notify the employer in writing of the amount of such dues from time to time. The Employer will send to the Union its cheque for the dues so deducted in the month following the month in which the dues are deducted.

The Employer agrees to meet with ONA to review the process of providing ONA dues information in an electronic format, in LHINs where it is currently not being done.

The Employer will provide the Union with: name of the organization; dues per employee including first and last name, total of all dues submitted identifying dues month; arrears or adjusted amounts; Social Insurance Numbers; hourly rate and status (full-time, regular part-time and casual part-time); terminations and effective date; leaves of absence exceeding 30 days (effective date); and, newly-hired employees with date of hire. Annually addresses will be provided for all current employees. A copy of this information will be sent to the Bargaining Unit President excluding Social Insurance Numbers and addresses.

7.02 T-4 Slips

The Employer shall include on each employee's T-4 slip the amount of monies deducted in the previous year, and remitted to the Union, for income tax purposes where such information is or becomes readily available through the Employer's payroll system. The Employer shall issue a T2200 if requested by the employee.

7.03 Indemnification

The Union shall indemnify and save the Employer harmless with respect to dues so deducted and remitted, and with respect to any liability which the Employer might incur as the result of such deduction.

7.04 New Employees

The Employer agrees to allow a representative of the Union as designated by the Bargaining Unit President, during her/his regular working hours to meet for a period of up to thirty (30) minutes, with newly hired employees during the general orientation period, which shall take place within the first month of their employment.

On or before the commencement of her employment, the Employer will give to each new employee a copy of this collective agreement. The Employer will issue in advance to the representative designated by the Bargaining Unit President the names of all new hires and the time in the orientation schedule when the thirty (30) minute meeting will take place.

- 7.05 Persons whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not perform work normally performed by employees in the bargaining unit including duties which overlap with those of excluded classifications if such performance would result in termination, layoff, reduction of hours, replacement of bargaining unit positions with excluded positions, or a reduction in the proportion of bargaining unit positions to excluded positions.

ARTICLE 8 – GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

- 8.01 The parties to this Agreement believe that it is important to respond to complaints and grievances as quickly as possible as provided for herein. The employee or Union shall first discuss any individual complaint informally with the Manager promptly following the issue giving rise to the complaint.

- 8.02 Should any dispute arise between the Employer and an employee, or between the Employer and the Union, or between the employer and a group of employees who have identical grievances, as to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement, such dispute shall be brought to the attention of the other party as a complaint within fourteen (14) calendar days or when the employee ought to have reasonably become aware of the issue giving rise to the complaint/grievance. Grievance transmittals shall take place between the bargaining unit representative designated by the Bargaining Unit President and the position designated by the Employer. It is understood that the Union has carriage of all grievances.

Grievances shall be on the form set out in Appendix 1. The parties agree to utilize an electronic copy of this form for the submission of grievances.

- 8.03 Once a complaint is initiated, the parties shall have a period, not to exceed forty (40) calendar days, during which to hold meetings as necessary to discuss the issue and attempt to arrive at a resolution. In addition to the union representative, the Union's Labour Relations Officer is entitled to attend such meetings.

- 8.04 (a) If, after the end of such forty (40) calendar day period, the issue has not been resolved, either party may inform the other party within fourteen (14) calendar days of its written intent to forward the matter to arbitration. Such notice shall contain the name of the first party's recommended Sole Arbitrator. Where such written notice is post-marked within twelve calendar days after the above forty (40) calendar day period, it will be deemed to have been received within the time limits. The recipient of the notice shall, within ten (10) calendar days, inform the other party of its agreement or propose an alternate Sole Arbitrator in writing. If the parties are unable to agree on an Arbitrator, the appointment of the Arbitrator shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario upon the request of either party.
- (b) Notwithstanding a) above, either party can notify the other that it does not feel the grievance can be resolved directly between the parties and that it intends to refer the grievance to arbitration in which case such notice to arbitrate will not be considered premature. Notwithstanding the notice to arbitrate, should the other party request a meeting, the first party will agree to attend such meeting to be scheduled as soon as practicable.

8.05 Time limits fixed in the grievance and arbitration procedures may be extended only by written, mutual consent of the parties. Should the Employer not respond within the time(s) fixed, such failure to respond shall be deemed to be a denial of the grievance. Should a grievance not be submitted within the various time limits specified in the Agreement, unless mutually extended, it shall be considered to have been settled or abandoned, subject to the relief jurisdiction of arbitrators under Section 48 (16) of the Labour Relations Act. Extensions under this clause shall not be unreasonable withheld.

8.06 Once appointed the Arbitrator shall have all the powers and shall conduct the proceeding under Section 50 of the Labour Relations Act to mediate/arbitrate the grievance, including the power to impose a settlement in accordance with Article 8.09.

The parties agree that presentations proceeding under this dispute resolution mechanism shall include a comprehensive opening statement and thereafter, shall be short and concise as possible. The parties agree to make limited reference to authorities during such submissions.

8.07 The Arbitrator shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a decision and the decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it.

8.08 The Arbitrator shall have authority only to settle disputes under the terms of this Agreement and only to interpret and apply this Agreement. The Arbitrator may take such decision as it may, in the circumstances, deem just and equitable and may vary or set aside any action relating to the grievance in question.

8.09 The Arbitrator shall have no power to alter, add to, subtract from, modify or amend this Agreement in order to give any decision inconsistent with it.

8.10 Each of the parties shall pay its own expenses including pay for witnesses and one-half of the expenses and fees of the Arbitrator.

8.11 Any grievance which has been disposed of hereunder or settled between the Employer, the Union or the employee(s) concerned shall be final and binding upon the Employer, Union and employee(s) involved.

8.12 It is understood and agreed that the parties may choose to utilize a Board of Arbitration instead of a Sole Arbitrator. In such cases each party will be responsible for their own nominees' expenses.

Where the parties agree, they will exchange names of nominees within ten (10) calendar days. The two appointees so selected shall within ten (10) calendar days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third person who shall be the Chairperson. If the parties' nominees are unable to agree on a Chairperson, or one of the parties fails to appoint a nominee, the appointment of the chair shall be made by the Minister of Labour for Ontario upon the request of either party.

All references in Article 8 to a Sole Arbitrator shall be taken to include a Board of Arbitration.

8.13 At the time formal discipline is imposed or at any stage of the grievance procedure, an employee is entitled to be represented by a union representative. In the case of suspension or discharge, the Employer shall notify the employee of this right in advance. Union Representatives undertake to be reasonably available in person or by telephone for such meeting.

In cases of suspension or discharge, the Employer agrees as a matter of good labour relations practice, in most circumstances, it will also notify a local union representative.

8.14 The release of a probationary employee shall not be subject to the grievance procedure unless the probationary employee is released for:

- (a) reasons which are arbitrary,
- (b) exercising a right under this agreement,
- (c) discriminatory, or
- (d) bad faith.

Should the Union be successful, the employee shall be reinstated to the remainder of the probationary period.

8.15 Discharge Grievance

The letter of termination or suspension without pay of an employee who has completed probation will include written reasons and will be provided to the employee within seven (7) calendar days of termination or suspension without pay.

A discharge grievance is to be submitted as a written statement lodged by the employee with the Employer within fourteen (14) calendar days of the discharge and will be dealt with starting at Article 8.03 of the grievance procedure.

8.16 If a Regulated Health Professional or Registered Social Worker is advised or notified that he/she is not a member in good standing with their College for any reason, including non-payment of the annual fee, the employee will notify the Employer immediately and will be placed on non-disciplinary suspension without pay. If the employee presents evidence that her or his Registration has been reinstated, he/she shall be reinstated to her or his position effective upon presenting such evidence. Failure to provide evidence within ninety (90) calendar days of the employee being placed on non-disciplinary suspension by the Employer will result in the employee being deemed to be no longer qualified and the employee shall be terminated with cause from the employ of the Employer unless there are extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the employee. Such termination shall not be the subject of a grievance or arbitration, subject to the provisions of the Ontario Human Rights Code.

ARTICLE 9 – SENIORITY AND SERVICE

9.01 Seniority will be based on last date of hire for regular full-time employees and will accrue on the basis of hours paid for regular part-time employees. One year of regular full-time seniority shall be equivalent to fifteen hundred (1500) paid hours of regular part-time seniority. Casual employees will accrue seniority on the same basis as regular part-time employees.

Seniority shall be a factor used in determining lay-off and recall rights, job posting, vacation preference and other non-compensation matters.

Service will be based on last date of hire for regular full-time employees and will accrue on the basis of hours paid for regular part-time employees. One year of regular full-time service shall be equivalent to fifteen hundred (1500) paid hours of regular part-time service. Casual employees will accrue service on the same basis as regular part-time employees.

Service will be used to determine pay level (i.e. salary progression), sick leave entitlement, vacation pay and any other compensation issues.

An employee's full seniority and service shall be retained by the employee in the event that the employee is transferred from regular full-time to regular part-time or in the event the employee is transferred from casual to regular part-time or vice-versa. An employee whose status is changed from regular full-time to regular part-time shall receive credit for his/her full seniority on the basis of fifteen hundred (1500) hours paid for each year of regular full-time seniority. An employee whose status is changed from regular part-time to regular full-time shall receive credit for his/her full seniority on the basis of one (1) year of seniority for each fifteen hundred (1500) hours paid. Any time worked in excess of an equivalent shall be pro-rated at the time of transfer.

- 9.02
- (a) A newly employed employee hired on a regular, temporary or casual basis shall be considered a probationary employee until she has completed nine hundred 900 hours worked or six (6) months whichever first occurs, after which her name shall be placed on the seniority list, and her seniority shall date from the date of hire. Where the Employer requests an extension of the probationary period, it will provide notice to the Association at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the expected date of expiration of the initial probationary period. It is understood and agreed that any extension to the probationary period will not exceed an additional four (4) months or six hundred (600) hours worked and, where requested, the Employer will advise the employee and the Union of the basis of such extension. During the probationary period, service may be terminated by the Employer for any cause.
 - (b) There shall be on-going discussions with the employee during the probationary period and the employee will not be terminated without having received written documentation of his/her work.

9.03 All seniority lists will be posted at all sites and on the Central East LHIN Intranet.

There will be two (2) separate seniority lists for 1) regular full-time employees, 2) regular part-time employees (including job sharers), fluctuating part-time employees, and casual employees. Seniority lists will be posted in May and November of each year and two (2) copies will be given to the Union.

Upon posting of the seniority lists, the Union and affected employees will have thirty (30) calendar days to make written objections to the accuracy of the lists, failing which the seniority lists will be deemed to be accurate.

Tiebreaker to be employees' birthdate with the employee having an earlier month and date having the preference.

9.04 An employee who accepts a position outside of the bargaining unit for up to one year shall retain but not accumulate seniority while in that position. Any extension to such assignment will be negotiated by the parties for issues relating to seniority retention. An employee will only be covered for a subsequent assignment out of the bargaining unit if in the interim they had returned to and worked in a bargaining unit position for at least the same duration as their previous assignment outside the bargaining unit.

9.05 Seniority and service shall be retained and accumulated when;

- (a) an employee is absent from work and in receipt of Worker's Safety and Insurance Benefits as a result of an injury or illness incurred while in the employment of the Employer for a period of thirty (30) months,
- (b) while on any sick leave, including Long Term Disability;
- (c) while in receipt of benefits for Pregnancy/Parental Leave.
- (d) When on an approved leave of absence with or without pay for the period of the time absence has been approved to a maximum of one hundred and twenty (120) days.

9.06 Seniority shall be lost and employment terminated:

- (a) When he/she resigns or retires;
- (b) When he/she is discharged and is not reinstated through the grievance procedure;
- (c) When he/she is on layoff for a period of twenty four (24) continuous months;
- (d) When an employee is absent from scheduled work without notifying the Employer and without providing a reasonable excuse for a period in excess of three (3) consecutive scheduled working days;
- (e) When an employee uses a leave primarily for a purpose other than that for which it was granted;

- (f) When an employee fails to return to work in accordance with Article 11 upon receipt of notice of recall from layoff sent by registered mail to the employee's last known address.

ARTICLE 10 – JOB POSTING

10.01 Job Posting

When the Employer determines that a vacancy exists, or creates a new position within the bargaining unit, the Employer shall post notice of such a vacancy and/or new position, electronically for a period of at least seven (7) calendar days during which time employees will have the opportunity to apply and be considered for the posted position. The Employer will send a copy of all job postings to the Bargaining Unit President. The Employer may advertise externally during the posting period it being understood that no external applications will be reviewed prior to all internal applicants (if any) being denied the position.

All information contained on a job posting is only intended to provide applicants with the current status of the vacancy. The information is not a guarantee that those details are not subject to change in accordance with the collective agreement.

Applicants will be advised if they have been successful/unsuccessful in the job competition process within 14 calendar days of the completion of the process.

The Bargaining Unit President will be advised electronically of the name of the successful applicant once the job is filled.

Probationary employees will not be considered for further job postings.

It is understood that work assignments within a program are a decision of the Employer.

An employee selected as a result of a posted or advertised vacancy or a request for transfer will not be considered for a further vacancy for a period of up to twelve (12) months from the date of his/her acceptance of posted position or transfer.

Exceptions to the above shall include:

- (a) Where an employee is applying for a position which would result in a change of status (e.g. temporary to permanent, part-time to full-time, Fluctuating Part-Time (FPT) to part-time or full-time)
- (b) An employee has changed positions under Article 11.03.

All fulltime and part time temporary employees may apply for an additional temporary position and be considered within 90 days of the expected end date of the temporary assignment.

In all cases of transfer and promotion, the following factors shall be considered:

- (a) ability, qualifications and performance; and
- (b) seniority, as of the last pay period.

Where the qualifications of factor (a) are relatively equal, factor (b) shall govern.

ARTICLE 11 – LAYOFF AND RECALL

11.01 Layoffs and Recalls

Long-term layoff

A long-term layoff shall be defined as a reduction in the hours of work of a regular full-time employee or a regular part-time employee, or if the Employer moves an occupied position from one branch to another, lasting longer than thirteen (13) weeks. Should such a reduction seem necessary, the Employer will meet with the Union to discuss the circumstances giving rise to the layoff and to consider suggestions aimed toward minimizing the negative effects of such layoff.

In the event of a proposed layoff at the Employer of a permanent or long-term nature within the bargaining unit, the Employer shall:

- i) provide the Union with no less than four (4) months written notice of the proposed layoff or elimination of position; and
- ii) provide to the affected employee(s), if any, no less than two (2) months written notice of layoff, or pay in lieu thereof.

Employees shall be laid off in reverse order of their seniority providing those who remain are qualified, and able to perform the available work satisfactorily after a familiarization period of five (5) working days.

Similarly, employees shall be recalled from layoff in order of their seniority providing they are qualified, and able to perform the available work satisfactorily after a familiarization period of five (5) working days.

No new employee will be hired while qualified employees, who are capable of doing the work after a five (5) day familiarization period, are laid off.

A layoff of employees shall be made on the basis of seniority initially within the classification, program status (full time or part time) and branch. It is understood and agreed that prior to the laying off of any employees, probationary employees in the classification program and branch where the layoff is going to occur will be laid off first.

An employee who has been notified of a layoff may:

- (a) accept the layoff; or
- (b) opt to retire if eligible under the terms of the Employer's pension plan; or

- (c) elect to transfer to a vacant position provided that she or he is qualified to perform the available work; or
- (d) displace an employee who has lesser bargaining unit seniority and is the least senior employee in a program within the Branch on the same seniority list (status), in any classification, whose work the displaced employee and has the skill, ability and qualifications to perform without training other than normal familiarization.
- (e) when there is no ability for the least senior employee to bump within a branch and program the employee can opt to bump the least senior employee in any branch and program on the same seniority list (status), in any classification and has the skill, ability and qualifications to perform without training other than normal familiarization.

The Employer shall provide the laid off employee with a part-time and full-time seniority list and a list of current vacant positions during the lay-off meeting.

Where there are vacant positions available under Article 11, but the employee is not qualified to perform the available work, and if such employee is not able to displace another employee under Article 11 and such layoff is expected to last longer than twelve (12) months, the employee will be provided with the necessary training of up to twelve (12) weeks' to enable the employee to become qualified for one of the vacant positions. In determining the position for which training will be provided the Employer shall take into account the employee's stated preference.

In this Article, a "vacant position" shall mean a position for which the posting process has been completed and no successful applicant has been appointed.

Employees will inform the Employer in writing of their decision to bump or accept the layoff within three (3) days of the receipt by the employee of his/her notice of layoff.

Severance pay, where applicable, will be paid in accordance with the Employment Standards Act. Acceptance of such payment shall be considered a severance of the employment relationship.

An employee, upon long-term layoff, and at the employee's expense, may continue benefit coverage (except for short and long-term sickness and long-term disability), for a period of twelve (12) months following the layoff by arranging to pay the full premiums, in advance, on a monthly basis.

Employees on layoff are eligible, in order of seniority, for "temporary" recalls of more than three (3) months and not longer than twelve (12) months and shall advise the Employer in writing as to whether they are interested in such recalls. Employees recalled for twelve (12) months or less shall not be entitled to further notice of layoff nor bumping rights. Furthermore, the time used to determine the employee's entitlement for continuing in the benefits program, for recall, and for other purposes under the layoff or seniority clauses shall be frozen during the period of temporary recall, and shall begin to accumulate again when the temporary recall ends. Employees who have elected to maintain benefits while on layoff shall have these same eligible benefits paid by the Employer during the period of temporary recall. Otherwise employees temporarily recalled have all the rights of other recalled employees.

Any temporary vacancies that arise will be first offered to employees on layoff.

Acceptance of a temporary assignment by a laid off employee does not constitute a recall to work, and after the completion of the assignment, the employee continues to be laid off according to Article 11.01.

Regular full time and regular part time employees on layoff may elect to have access to shifts that would otherwise be offered on a casual basis. Such employees will inform the Employer of their selection within three (3) working days of notice of layoff. Those employees that elect to take shifts will be offered shifts before casual staff. The refusal of casual shifts would not affect their status as a laid off employee. The time used to determine the employee's entitlement for continuing in the benefits program, for recall, and for other purposes under the layoff or seniority clauses would be unaffected during the periods of time worked.

Recall to a regular part time or regular full time position shall be in order of seniority. An employee will respond to a registered notice of recall within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of same and shall be available for work within an additional fourteen (14) calendar days unless otherwise agreed.

Laid off employees are entitled to apply for posted vacancies.

Short-term layoff

A short-term layoff shall be defined as a temporary reduction in the hours of work of a regular full-time employee or a regular part-time employee that lasts less than thirteen (13) weeks. The Employer will provide the union and any employee affected with a minimum of seven (7) days' notice. The Employer will meet with the Union to discuss the circumstances giving rise to the layoff and to consider suggestions aimed toward minimizing the negative effects of such layoff. This clause shall not be triggered by the inadvertent reduction of an employee's hours of work.

An employee who has been notified of a short-term lay-off may:

- (a) accept the layoff; or,
- (b) opt to retire if eligible under the terms of the Employer's pension plan; or,
- (c) elect to transfer to a vacant position, provided she or he is qualified to perform the available work; or,
- (d) displace the least senior employee in the bargaining unit whose work she or he is qualified to perform.

11.02

- (a) Before issuing notice of long term layoff pursuant to Article 11, and following notice pursuant to Article 11, the Employer will make offers of early retirement allowance in accordance with the following conditions:
 - i) The Employer will first make offers in order of seniority in the classification and branch(s) where layoffs would otherwise occur.
 - ii) The Employer will make offers to employees eligible for early retirement under the Employer's pension plan (including regular part-time, if applicable, whether or not they participate in the pension plan).

- iii) If an employee(s) in the branch referred to in paragraph (i) does not accept the offer, the Employer will then extend the offer, in order of seniority, to eligible Employees in the same classification in the branch where an employee who has been notified of a long-term lay-off elects to displace another employee in accordance with Article 11.01 and one subsequent displacement. The Employer is not required to offer retirement allowances in accordance with this provision on any subsequent displacement. For clarity the offer shall follow the displaced Employee to a maximum of two displacements.
- iv) The number of early retirements the Employer approves will not exceed the number of employees who would otherwise be laid off.

An employee who elects an early retirement option shall receive, following completion of the last day of work, a retirement allowance of two (2) weeks' salary for each year of service, to a maximum ceiling of fifty-two (52) weeks' salary.

- (b) Where an employee has received individual notice of long term layoff under Article 11 such employee may resign and receive a separation allowance as follows:

Where an employee resigns effective within thirty (30) days after receiving individual notice of long term layoff, she or he shall be entitled to a separation allowance of two (2) weeks' salary for each year of continuous service to a maximum of sixteen (16) weeks' pay.

11.03 Where the Employer moves a position from one program to another within a branch that does not result in a reduction of bargaining unit positions within the branch, such moves will not be considered a layoff. For clarity, the physical seven branches and the multiple hospital sites, are deemed to be independent branches for the purposes of this clause. The programs are defined as Community, Point of Access, Extended Hours, Placement, and Clinical.

In the event of a proposed movement of a position from one program to another within a branch of a permanent or long-term nature the Employer shall:

- i) provide the Union with no less than three (3) months written notice of the proposed movement of a position to another program; and
- ii) provide to the affected employee(s), if any, no less than two (2) months written notice of movement of the position to another program.

An employee who has been notified of the movement of a position from one program to another may:

- (a) accept the movement of their position from one program to another and select available positions and initial assignments based on seniority; or

- (b) elect to transfer to a vacant position provided that she or he is qualified to perform the available work; or
- (c) displace another employee in any classification of the same status who has lesser bargaining unit seniority and who is the least senior employee in a program in the branch whose work the employee subject to layoff is qualified to perform.

ARTICLE 12 – EMPLOYEE FILES

12.01 Any letter of reprimand or suspension will be removed from the record of an employee twelve (12) months following the receipt of such letter or suspension provided that such employee's record has been discipline free for such twelve (12) month period.

Leaves of absence in excess of thirty (30) continuous calendar days will not count towards the time periods noted above.

12.02 A copy of any completed evaluation which is to be placed in an employee's file shall be first reviewed with the employee. The employee shall initial such evaluation as having been read and shall have the opportunity to add her or his views to such evaluation prior to it being placed in her or his file. It is understood that such evaluations do not constitute disciplinary action by the Employer against the employee. A request by an employee for a copy of other documents in their file will not be unreasonably denied.

Each employee shall have reasonable access to all her or his files for the purpose of reviewing their contents in the presence of her or his supervisor and/or a representative from Human Resources. A copy of the evaluation will be provided to the employee at her or his request.

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY REPORT FORM

GUIDELINES AND TIPS ON ITS USE

The parties agree that client care is enhanced if concerns relating to professional practice are resolved in a timely and effective manner. The parties will utilize a problem-solving process focusing on collaborative solutions at the earliest possible opportunity. This report form provides a tool for documentation to facilitate discussion and to promote a problem solving approach. ONA may use this information for statistical purposes and noting trends across the province.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF THE PROBLEM-SOLVING PROCESS. PRIOR TO SUBMITTING THE PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY REPORT FORM, PLEASE FOLLOW ALL STEPS AS OUTLINED IN YOUR PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS (e.g. CNO or other regulatory college(s)) AND/OR APPLICABLE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENTS.

STEPS IN PROBLEM SOLVING PROCESS

1. At the time the issue occurs, discuss the matter within the Team/Site/Program to develop strategies to meet client care needs using current resources. If necessary, using established lines of communication, seek immediate assistance from an individual identified by the employer (e.g. supervisor) who has responsibility for timely resolution of professional responsibility issues.
2. Failing resolution of the issue at the time of the occurrence, discuss the issue with your manager (or designate) on the manager's or designate's next working day.
3. If no satisfactory resolution is reached during steps (1) and (2) above, then you may submit a LHIN professional responsibility report form within the timeframes outlined in the Collective Agreement in Article 24.
4. The Employer-Union Committee shall hear and attempt to resolve the complaint to the satisfaction of both parties.

TIPS FOR COMPLETING THE FORM

1. Review the form before completing it so you have an idea of what kind of information is required.
2. All dates required need to be in the following format: dd/mm/yyyy.
3. If using the electronic form, wherever the form requires descriptions, the grey field will expand as you type. Print legibly if using the hard copy of this form.
4. Use complete words as much as possible – avoid abbreviations.
5. Report only facts about which you have first-hand knowledge. If you use second-hand or hearsay information, identify the source if permission is granted.
6. Identify the Professional Standards of practice/policies and procedures you feel you were unable to meet.
7. Do not, under any circumstances, identify clients.
8. Provide a copy to the employer.

APPENDIX 3

RE: Inclement Weather

From time to time, severe weather conditions may prompt changes in the hours of work. Should conditions warrant, the Chief Executive Officer or designate may change the hours of work.

The employer will consider requests to allow employees to flex their hours of work or attend an office, other than their home branch, with management approval.

When the Executive Director or designate changes the regular hours of work due to inclement weather, employees affected will not be required to charge the time not worked to accumulated vacation or compensating time, nor will they be required to make up the time lost.

When employees are not at work due to illness, vacation or leave of absence when the hours of work are changed due to inclement weather, their total time away from work will remain charge as sick leave, vacation, or leave of absence.

If an employee requests time off work during regularly scheduled hours of work as a result of weather conditions, the time off must be charged against the employee's accumulated vacation or compensating time credits or the time may be deducted as leave of absence without pay unless the Executive Director or designate has changed the hours of work as noted above. Your Manager must approve any such absence.
