Where the parties have agreed to a job share arrangement a notice will be posted for a two week period to allow any employee the opportunity to submit a request for a job share position. Following the two week period, should more than one request be received then seniority shall be the deciding factor.

N-1 All such positions shall be considered full-time.

N-5 Job Sharers shall be treated as regular part-time employees for all purposes with the exception of Article L. Job sharers may be called for additional shifts which become available on their unit only after all regular part-time employees on the unit have been offered the work.

- N-12 If one of the job sharers leaves the arrangement, her position will be posted. If there is no successful applicant to the position, the shared position must revert to a full-time position. The remaining job sharer will be offered the position on a full-time basis, should she decline, then she shall exercise her seniority rights under the Collective Agreement. The full-time position will then be posted in accordance with the Collective Agreement.
- N-13 Either party may terminate the job sharing arrangement on giving eight (8) weeks notice to the other, in writing, of their desire to terminate.
