ONA Provincial Election Policy

This Policy applies to all candidates and anyone acting on behalf of a candidate. Any questions on the Policy should be directed to the ONA Chief Executive Officer (CEO) who serves as ONA's Chief Electoral Officer.

In the event that a provincial election issue is not specifically addressed in this Policy, then the CEO shall apply the intent of the Policy in making any determinations.

Candidate Eligibility

1. A member who allows their name to stand for an elected position must be a member with entitlements of the Ontario Nurses' Association (ONA) and currently employed in an ONA Bargaining Unit.
2. A member running for Provincial Office should be an active union member with a commitment to the advancement of the ONA.

In accordance with article 4.16 of the ONA Constitution, in order to be eligible to be nominated, stand for election and hold a position on the Board of Directors, a member must have first served at least one full term in one of the following Local Executive or Bargaining Unit Leadership Team positions (or equivalent as determined by the Board of Directors):

- Local Coordinator;
- Bargaining Unit President;
- Bargaining Unit Vice-President*; or,
- Grievance Chair.

*For purposes of this policy, the title of "Vice-President" refers to an elected position with a labour relations focus whose duties include acting in the capacity of Bargaining Unit President in their absence.

In assessing equivalency to the above noted positions, the Board will consider such factors as the role, responsibility and accountability of the position as outlined in Local policy. The process to be used by the Board in assessing equivalency is as follows:

The following process will be followed in the event a candidate seeks nomination who does not appear to meet the eligibility requirements outlined in article 4.16:

- ① the Chief Electoral Officer will advise the prospective candidate that they may, if they wish, make written submissions to the Board of Directors identifying how their local leadership experience was "equivalent" in role, responsibility and accountability to those specified in article 4.16. The CEO will advise the prospective candidate of the time limit for providing such submission taking into consideration the election process.

- (i) Such written submission shall be provided to the Board who will expeditiously consider the submission and make a determination, with short written reasons, as to whether the candidate has the required equivalent experience making them qualified to stand for election under Article 4.16.
 - (ii) Any Board member who would be running for election against the prospective candidate will be recused from participating in this decision.
 - (iv) The candidate will be notified of the decision as soon as possible. The decision will be final and binding.
3. A member may not run as a candidate for more than one (1) position on the Board of Directors during any one election.

The Nomination Form must also be signed and dated by five (5) members with entitlements. (For Regional Vice-Presidents the Nomination Form must be signed by members with entitlements from their region.) Note: Board members and Election Team members cannot sign Nomination Forms for candidates.
7. When determining if a candidate or the nominators are members with entitlements, the CEO will check the membership status against the information maintained in the membership database.
8. A scanned copy of the completed and signed Nomination Form is to be sent in to the CEO via email by 4:00 p.m. ET on the date specified in the Call for Nominations. The CEO is responsible for including these resumes/CVs and articles with the Ticket of Nominations.

10. The font size and length of information for inclusion in the Ticket of Nominations will be consistent. The article shall contain no more than 1,000 words.

The candidate is responsible for all other costs associated with any mailings.

ONA Membership Email

22. On behalf of the candidates, ONA will facilitate the sending of up to two (2) emails to ONA membership using ONA-sponsored mass email to members' personal email addresses. These emails will be sent from the CEO. After receiving the first email, a member may choose to have their name removed and not receive any further correspondence relating to the candidates.

Emails will be reviewed and approved by the Chief Electoral Officer (the CEO) to ensure compliance with the Policy. Candidates will be advised as to the date that email content must be provided to the CEO in order to be included in the email to ONA membership.

ONA Leadership Email

23. On behalf of each candidate, ONA will facilitate the sending of up to three (3) emails to all local leaders using the Association's email system. These emails will be sent from the CEO. Any information gathered from any source must not be used unless permission has been granted by the member. Note: If consent is provided then a candidate may communicate to a leader's individual ONA email address.
25. For clarity, candidates who hold executive positions within the Association are expected to continue fulfilling their duties during the election period. If a candidate must use the ONA email system in order to fulfil his/her duties, the candidate must ensure that the emails sent are not directly or indirectly campaign emails. Personal promotion on the ONA email system is strictly prohibited.

Meet the Candidates Session

26. ONA will host a virtual Meet the Candidates Session so that members can hear candidates explain their platforms and answer questions. These sessions will be arranged and facilitated by the Chief Electoral Officer. They will be recorded and then posted on the ONA provincial website so that members may access.

Campaigning

27. Active campaigning (speaking engagements, distributing materials/pamphleting, posting materials on websites and or bulletin boards, sending group emails, hosting campaign events, etc.) may begin upon the close of nominations and must cease on the close of the election (November 1 unless it is a by-election). Note: This does not prohibit seeking support from members by or on behalf of a candidate prior to the close of nominations.
28. There will be no campaigning in workplaces without the consent of the Local Executive pursuant to Local policy and where required, the consent of the employer. Consent of the Local Executive will be given on a fair and equitable basis.

33. Campaigning is permitted before or after ONA functions/booked engagements but not during any breaks or meal periods.
34. No candidate may use the provincial resources of ONA (including financial, physical and human) to campaign except where identified specifically in this Policy. For example, candidates may not use photos taken by ONA staff or contractors. Official ONA logo promotional items, including ONA promotional pins, may not be used as giveaways as part of an election campaign.

Campaign Material/Behaviour

35. Election materials and behaviour must not violate the Ontario Human Rights Code. It is also a requirement that such materials and behaviour be truthful, respectful, professional and in good taste.
36. Candidates who wish to post an image of a person in any campaign material on any medium (including hard copy and electronic) must have the expressed written consent of that individual prior to the publication of their image.

38. There will be no posting of campaign materials in workplaces without the agreement of the Local Executive and/or Bargaining Unit Leadership Team as defined by Local policy. In addition, where the collective agreement so requires, the consent of the employer must be sought. Should consent be granted, all posting of election materials will be done by the Local/Bargaining Unit Executive or designate. The only material required to be posted is the notice sent out by ONA referenced in #19 above.
39. The utilization of a Local or Bargaining Unit database is determined by the Local or Bargaining Unit Leadership Team as appropriate. The Local/Bargaining Unit may send out emails to their members on behalf of a candidate.

Electronic Communications and Social Media

40. Candidates may create and utilize personal election social media accounts during the campaign. Any use of such accounts must comply with this Policy. Note: This also applies to social media accounts that the candidate is not the administrator of.
41. Candidates will not call or send electronic communications to members at their employer email address for the purpose of campaigning. Candidates may use their campaign material to request members to contact them directly if they wish to speak to a candidate.

42. Candidates will respect requests from individuals not to send them any campaign-related electronic or social media communications.

Personal Endorsements

43. All members and leaders (except for ONA Board and Election Team members) can openly support the candidate of their choice.
44. Candidates who wish to utilize an image of a person must have the expressed written consent of that individual prior to the publication of their image.
45. With the permission of the endorser, endorsements for the purpose of campaigning may include the person's position within ONA.

Videos for President/First Vice-President

46. ONA will develop a personal video message (not to exceed five minutes in length) for the candidates running for President and First Vice-President. The Call for Nominations will include the date, time and place that the video message will be recorded.

Candidates will be video-taped in alphabetical order by last name, by office. There shall be no props or special backdrops used in the video. Candidates may utilize the teleprompter available from the videographer.

47. The personal video messages will be added to the ONA provincial website so that members can view them at their convenience.

Local/Bargaining Unit Meetings

48. If a Local Executive and/or a Bargaining Unit Leadership Team chooses to hold any meeting(s) for the purpose of personally getting to know candidates, then all candidates must be offered the same courtesy and all be invited.
49. Invitations to Local/Bargaining Unit meetings will be sent to all candidates by a member of the Local Executive/Bargaining Unit leadership team at least two weeks in advance of the meeting. Candidates will be provided with the date and time of the meeting, including the amount of time available to them to speak.
50. If a candidate cannot attend the Local/ Bargaining Unit meeting to which she/he has been invited, the candidate may choose to send a letter or a personal video. The Local Coordinator/Bargaining Unit President holding the meeting will read the letter or show the personal video from the candidate.

51. A Local Executive, at its discretion, may choose to provide teleconferencing or videoconferencing where a candidate cannot attend the Local meeting in person. This shall be at the Local's expense. A Local that chooses to provide this option must do so to all candidates on a fair and equitable basis.

Area Coordinators Conference(s)

52. Candidates will be provided an opportunity to speak at the fall Area Coordinators Conference(s) (ACCs), for a specific amount of time as determined by the Region. All candidates must request attendance at an ACC through the Chair of the ACC. If a candidate cannot attend the ACC, the candidate may choose to send a letter or a personal video. A personal video of the candidate will be shown or a letter will be read by a designate to a maximum time as determined by the Region. Candidates will be provided with the date and their allotted time to speak. Arrangements may also be made for teleconferencing or videoconferencing where a candidate cannot attend the ACC in person.

The five regional Vice-Presidents will gather information on upcoming ACCs and forward to the Office of the CEO. A letter will be sent to all candidates giving ACC dates and the names of who to contact to request attendance.

53. Candidates are to advise the CEO of the telephone number that they can be reached at upon close of the election. The CEO will place one call to each candidate prior to releasing the results of the election to membership.

The Election Team

55. The names of the Election Team will be made public and shared with candidates so they are not approached by a candidate for support. The Election Team will be provided a copy of the Ticket of Nominations.
56. The CEO will be an advisor to the Election Team.

Questions or Complaints Under the Election Policy

57. It is understood that candidates will abide by the Election Policy of the ONA. Any alleged breach of the Policy will be addressed in accordance with this Policy and Article 7.19 of the ONA Constitution. For clarity, Article 7.19 states:

“Any member who wishes to make a complaint that the Union’s Election Policy has been breached shall promptly do so in writing to the Chief Executive Officer providing as much detail as possible. The Chief Executive Officer shall investigate the complaint and forward the results of the investigation to the Election Team. If the Election Team is satisfied that the Election Policy has been breached by one or more members it may refer the matter directly to the Board of Directors for a hearing pursuant to Article 9. When such a referral is made the Election Team shall be the complainant for the purposes of pursuing the complaint.”

Any hearing dealing with a breach of the Election Policy will be expedited and not subject to the timelines outlined in Policy 16.16. The date of such hearing will be determined by the Provincial President or designate.

58. The CEO and the Election Team Chair will work together to address any questions/concerns/complaints in an expeditious manner. The CEO can provide direction and/or guidance to candidates and members. The Election Team will be notified immediately by the CEO of the direction provided.

SECTION: BOARD OF DIRECTORS
SUBJECT: CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND CODE OF CONDUCT

POLICY: 5.15
EFFECTIVE: JUNE 2018
REVISED: JUNE 2020

Policy:

Conflicts of interest, whether actual or perceived, are based on particular facts and circumstances. This policy identifies circumstances which may give rise to a conflict of interest, be it actual, perceived or potential and the process to disclose any such conflict. In addition, this policy provides guidance to Board Members on when to seek the objective and expert advice of ONA Counsel. Often, the sooner the conflict of interest is identified and disclosed, and legal counsel is sought, the easier it is to deal with the consequences of a conflict. In general, Board Members should raise concerns even if they are unsure if a conflict of interest exists.

Board members will sign an annual Agreement and Affirmation of Compliance with the Conflict of Interest and Code of Conduct Policy (attached as Appendix A).

Note: In accordance with ONA Policy 5.14 Whistle-Blower Protection, the ONA Board of Directors have a duty to take appropriate and timely action in respect of any illegal or unethical activity they may witness or become aware of within ONA in order to safeguard ONA assets, protect ONA's reputation and, where crimes appear to have been committed, to ensure wrongdoers are reported to the police.

A. Conflict of Interest

1. Definitions

For the purposes of this Policy:

A "conflict of interest" is a situation in which a Board Member has a professional or personal interest that could reasonably be expected to affect the independence or judgment of the Board Member in the performance of their duties. A conflict of interest may be actual or potential or the situation may have the appearance of a conflict of interest; and,

A "Related Person" in relation to a Board Member, means:

- (i) the Board Member's spouse or common-lawpartner;
- (ii) any relatives (most typically immediate family members) of the Board Member;
- (iii) any trust, of which the Board Member or a spouse (including a common-law partner) or relative of the Board Member, is a beneficiary, but does not include a registered pension plan or any trust established under a collective agreement;
- (iv) a corporation or partnership over which the Board Member or the Board Member's spouse (including a common-law partner) or relative exercises ownership rights or control; or
- (v) the Board Member's businesspartner.

2. Obligations - General

Board Members should have a sound understanding of their fiduciary responsibility to ONA members so they can promptly identify and anticipate when a conflict of interest may arise. Board Members are encouraged to seek the advice of ONA Counsel about whether an actual, perceived or potential conflict of interest exists and what steps should be taken in such circumstances. In resolving any conflict, Board Members must ensure that their actions are consistent with their fiduciary responsibilities, this Policy and other applicable law.

A Board Member must not exercise their duties as a Board Member if the Board Member has an actual, perceived or potential conflict of interest. In particular, a Board Member must not participate in decisions, or attempt to influence the Board in making any decisions, that might result in the Board Member's or a Related Person's personal or private gain.

To effectively manage a conflict of interest, the Board Member should seek guidance from ONA Counsel and disclose the conflict in accordance with the process set out below.

3. Disclosure at Meetings

At the opening of each meeting of the ONA Board of Directors or of the Discipline Panel of the Board, as the case may be, the Board Member must declare any actual, perceived or potential conflict of interest that they have in relation to any item on the meeting agenda. Any declaration of a conflict by a Board Member should be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. When a conflict has been declared in relation to any agenda item, conflicted Board Members should absent themselves and not participate in any discussion of the item.

The Board Member must not discuss the matter with any other Board Member or otherwise attempt to influence the decision of another Board Member in relation to the matter.

A conflicted Board Member is not, under any circumstances, permitted to vote on an agenda item in which they have an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest.

4. Disclosure Other Than at Meetings

If a Board Member becomes aware of a conflict of interest at any time other than during a meeting, the Board Member should disclose the conflict to the Provincial President or ONA Counsel, as appropriate, and the conflict will be recorded at the opening of the next meeting that the Board Member attends.

The prohibition against personal gain in section 2 above applies to all aspects of ONA's or its members' property, including assets, information or opportunities.

Accordingly, Board Members shall not use confidential information obtained as a result of their duties on the ONA Board of Directors for personal or private gain or advantage, or for the personal or private gain or advantage of a Related Person.

In general, advice of ONA Counsel should be obtained whenever Board Members have any doubts or concerns in relation to a conflict of interest, actual or potential, whether the issue arises at a meeting of the Board or Discipline Committee or otherwise.

5. Obligations

Without limiting the general obligations set out above, Board Members must ensure that they do not (and take reasonable steps to ensure that Related Persons do not):

- (i) engage, directly or indirectly, in any business transaction or private arrangement for personal profit or gain which arises from their position as a ONA Board Member;
- (ii) accept goods or services from a third party vendor or service provider to ONA on terms that are more favourable than those generally available to the public;
- (iii) accept any remuneration, gift or benefit from a third party vendor or service provider to ONA under circumstances from which it could reasonably be concluded that the remuneration, gift or benefit was intended to influence the Board Member in their duties or was intended as a reward for decisions or actions taken by the Board Member. Nothing in this Policy precludes the Board Members from participating in any social or educational event that is sponsored by a third party vendor or service provider to ONA or accepting any gift or benefit (including any invitation for meals or entertainment), provided that such gift or benefit is reasonably modest in value and the giving and receiving of such gift or benefit is consistent with normal industry practice and could not reasonably be perceived as influencing the Board Members' decision-making; or
- (iv) enter into any business or financial transaction, whether directly or indirectly, which would result in a conflict of interest.
- (v) After ceasing to be a Board Member, taking improper advantage of information obtained while serving as a Board Member.

6. Compliance

To assist the Board fulfil its fiduciary responsibilities and obligations to ONA members, and to assist fellow Board Members, where a Board Member believes that another person has an actual or perceived conflict of interest, such Board Member shall:

- (i) advise the person of their belief, and if necessary, advise the Provincial President or Chair of the Discipline Committee at the commencement of the meeting or during the course of the meeting as the conflict arises; or
- (ii) seek advice as necessary from the Provincial President and/or ONA Counsel.

The ONA Board of Directors may approve exceptions to this Policy on the basis of individual events and circumstances where they determine, after due consideration and with the benefit of advice from ONA Counsel, that no material conflict of interest is likely to arise and the interests of ONA members and Board Members will not be adversely affected.

If the ONA Board of Directors is satisfied that a Board Member has breached this Policy, the Board may impose any sanction it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

The Board commits itself to ethical, business-like and lawful conduct, including proper use of authority and appropriate decorum when acting as Board members.

1. The loyalty and good faith of Board members is unwavering in its dedication to act in the best interests of membership.
