ONA Provincial Professional Practice Teleconnect Engaging Front Line Members in the PRC Process

From Filling out the PRWF's to Getting the Resolution

Date: Tuesday November 22, 2016

Time: 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Topic Engaging the Front Line in the PRC Process
During this session, ONA's Professional Practice Specialists will discuss the importance of getting and keeping front line members engaged in the professional responsibility process. They will also outline strategies that Bargaining Unit Representatives can use to keep the momentum going throughout the process, from beginning to end.

Audience: This teleconnect will be of interest to ONA members, Unit reps, Professional Responsibility Complaint (PRC) reps, Bargaining Unit Presidents and Local Coordinators.

Format: ONA First Vice-President Vicki McKenna, RN, will be the moderator for this teleconference. It will begin with a short presentation by a Professional Practice Specialist.

Following the presentation, there will be an interactive question-and-answer session. A recording of the session will be available for seven days after the session has ended. This recording will also be available online in the Executive Section of ONA's website at www.ona.org approximately two weeks after the session.

Registration: ONA members can register for the teleconnect by sending an email to RegisterProfPractice@ona.org. Members will be required to provide their name and ONA ID number. Once registered, members will receive a response that will include the telephone number needed to call in, as well as the conference number to enter.

Materials: PowerPoint slides of the presentation will be emailed to registrants prior to the teleconnect. The presentation and related materials will be posted on the ONA website following the teleconnect.
