

NOTICE

ONA Provincial Human Rights and Equity Teleconnect

Date: Tuesday, April 10, 2018

Time: 4:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Topic: #MeToo and Time's Up: A Sea Change for Sexual Harassment Issues?

Audience: This teleconnect will be of particular interest to Human Rights and Equity Bargaining Unit Representatives, Safe Return to Work/Work Accommodation Representatives, Bargaining Unit Presidents and Local Coordinators.

Format: Since October 2017 we have seen a wave of allegations of sexual misconduct against numerous celebrities and politicians be reported and believed, resulting in unprecedented consequences for the alleged perpetrators.

Hosted by return to work specialist Pauline Lefebvre-Hinton, litigators Alison Dover and Sandy Donaldson, and Region 1 Vice-President Pam Mancuso (Human Rights and Equity portfolio), this session will take participants through the history of the "#MeToo/Time's Up" movements with an aim of identifying what has actually changed and where things may be headed.

The presentation will include a summary of the law related to sexual harassment and a discussion of the resources available to our members.

Registration: ONA members will be able to register for the teleconnect by sending an email to registerhre@ona.org. Members will be required to provide their name and ONA ID number. Once registered, the member will receive a response, which will include the teleconnect call-in number, as well as the conference PIN number.

Registration will be on a first-come, first-serve basis. ONA reserves the right to limit the number of registrants.

Materials: A PowerPoint of the presentation will be distributed to registrants in advance of the teleconnect.

Questions: When registering for the teleconnect, members will be able to pre-submit any questions they would like to have addressed during the presentation.
