

Time's Up, Better Care Now! Social Sharing How you can help others take action online

There are a number of online tools you can use to continue the momentum of bargaining initiatives and support direct actions. By posting these tools to your personal social media accounts, you can help keep the pressure on MPPs and the OHA to reach a fair agreement.

The contract hasn't been settled, and the arbitrator's decision hasn't been made – we can still put pressure on our provincial leaders to do the right thing now to value nurses and ensure patient safety!
