ARTICLE 1 – PURPOSE

- 1.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to establish by mutual agreement an orderly collective bargaining relationship between the Employer and the employees concerned, and to provide for the prompt disposition of grievances, to establish and maintain satisfactory working conditions, hours of work, and wages for all employees within the bargaining unit.
- 1.02 It is recognized that the parties wish to work together to secure the best possible nursing care and health protection for residents.

ARTICLE 2 – RECOGNITION

- 2.01 The Employer recognizes the Ontario Nurses' Association as the exclusive collective bargaining agent for all registered and graduate nurses employed in a nursing capacity by The Corporation of the County of Prince Edward at the H.J. McFarland Memorial Home, save and except the Director of Care, persons above the rank of Director of Care and persons regularly employed for not more than twenty-four (24) hours per week.
- 2.02 A registered nurse is defined as a person who is registered by the College of Nurses in accordance with the Regulated Health Professions Act, as amended.
- 2.03 (a) The Employer will assign at least the same number of bargaining unit tours that were scheduled on each shift of each day of the last week ending prior to March 31, 2008, with the exception of nurses scheduled, or working hours that were funded by Provincial programs such as RAI, Late Career Incentives.
- The Employer will assign at least the same number of bargaining unit tours that were scheduled on each shift of each day of the last week ending prior to March 31, 2008, with the exception of nurses scheduled, or working hours that were funded by Provincial programs such as RAI, Late Career Incentives.
- In order to protect the standard of care, the Employer agrees that no one outside of the above-mentioned bargaining unit shall perform the work normally performed by members of this bargaining unit except for the purpose of instruction, experimentation, in the event of an emergency situation, or situations when there are no bargaining unit employees who have made themselves available prior to the work being done. The above will not apply to special nurses employed by the residents.
- (b) In the event the Employer cannot meet their commitment, it shall so notify the Union and fully disclose the reasons thereof.
- (c) If the failure to staff is a legitimate recruitment issue, there shall be no violation of this Agreement. The Employer will make best efforts to recruit a replacement and will provide the Union with a copy of the job posting.

- (d) Further, if there is a significant reduction in beds, occupancy levels or funding below the levels in effect as of March 31, 1999, a reduction in the complement shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement, as long as the reduction is no greater than necessary to offset the funding reduction.
- (e) It is understood that this provision does not restrict the exercise of management's rights to make staffing and work assignment decisions on a day-to-day basis.
- (f) If there is any other reason for the failure to staff in accordance with this article, the Union and Employer will attempt to find a resolution and if unable to do so, the matter may be referred to Arbitration.
- (g) The Arbitrator/Arbitration Board will have authority to determine whether the reduction in staffing was appropriate and shall have jurisdiction to award an effective remedy.
- (h) The assignment of patient duties, including the delegation or direction of duties by members of the bargaining unit to other health care providers, shall be in accordance with the Regulated Health Professions Act and related statutes and regulations and in accordance with the guidelines established by the College of Nurses of Ontario from time to time and any Employer policy related thereto shall meet those requirements.

2.04 The word "nurses" when used throughout this agreement shall mean persons included in the above-described bargaining unit.

Wherever the collective agreement makes reference to "registered nurses" such amendments shall be amended to reflect the appropriate designation established by the Regulated Health Professions Act.

ARTICLE 3 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

3.01 The Union recognizes that the Management of the Home (hereinafter referred to as the Home), including the direction of the Nurses, is fixed with the Home, and shall remain exclusively with the Home, except as specifically limited by the provisions of this Agreement. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive function of the Employer:

- (a) To determine and establish standards and procedures for the care, welfare, safety and comfort of the residents;
- (b) To maintain order, discipline and efficiency, and to make reasonable rules and regulations governing the employees, which shall be communicated to them;
- (c) To generally direct the Nurses at any time, determine the number of shifts required, the job content, the establishment of work or job assignments, to determine the qualifications of an employee to perform any job, to decide on the number of employees needed by the Employer at any time, the number of hours to be worked, when overtime shall be worked, and to decide on the use of new or improved or changed methods in equipment;

- (d) To hire, discharge, retire, transfer, promote, demote, suspend or otherwise discipline employees, provided that the claim by an employee, who has acquired seniority, that she or he has been disciplined or discharged unjustly, may be the subject of a grievance, dealt with as hereinafter provided.

3.02 It is agreed that management functions shall not be exercised contrary to the express provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4 - NO DISCRIMINATION

4.01 The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, harassment, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any employees by reason of age, race, creed, colour, national origin, religion, political affiliation, sexual orientation, sex, marital status or any grounds prohibited by the Human Rights Code of Ontario.

The Employer and the Union will continue its policy of no discrimination within the meaning of the Ontario Human Rights Code, as amended from time to time, or by reason of her or his membership or non-membership in activities or lack thereof on behalf of the Union or any of its affiliated organizations, or while exercising their rights under the Collective Agreement.

4.02 The Employer agrees that no members of management will seek by interference, restriction or coercion to persuade an employee not to exercise her or his rights under this Collective Agreement.

4.03 The Union agrees that there will be no Union activity on the premises of the Employer without prior written approval being given by the Employer or as specifically permitted by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - NO STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

5.01 The Union agrees there will be no strikes and the Employer agrees there will be no lockouts during the term of this Agreement. The term "strike" and "lockout" shall bear the meaning given them in the Ontario Labour Relations Act.

ARTICLE 6 - UNION COMMITTEES AND REPRESENTATIVES

6.01 The Employer will recognize the following representation:

- (a) The Bargaining Unit President and one other member who is from either part-time or full-time depending on the status of the Bargaining Unit President. The intent is to have both full-time and part-time nurses equally represented. Upon mutual written agreement of the parties, the foregoing number may be altered from time to time. These union representatives shall also comprise the grievance committee.

- (b) A negotiating committee of two (2) employees who shall represent both the full-time bargaining unit and the part-time bargaining unit.
- (c) A Joint Labour Management Committee composed of two (2) employees and an equal number of representatives of the Employer. Meetings of this Committee shall be held at the request of either party, but at least every other month. The purpose of this Committee shall be to discuss matters relating to workload, scheduling matters, job content and other matters of mutual concern. Minutes of these meetings shall be maintained and signed by both parties. The role of Chairpersons shall rotate between the parties. The parties further agree that suitable subjects for discussion at the Joint Labour Management Committee will include aggressive residents.

- 6.02 The Employer agrees that to the extent that it applies to its operations, it will abide by the provisions of the Occupational Health and Safety Act.
- 6.03 The Union will supply the Employer with the names of their representatives and any changes thereto, and the Employer shall not be required to recognize such representatives until notified, in writing, by the Union of their appointment.
- 6.04 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint or to otherwise select not more than two (2) representatives to assist with respect to the investigating or processing of grievances, and renegotiation of this Agreement. The Union acknowledges that union representatives, members of the Grievance Committee, and members of the Negotiating Committee, have regular duties to perform on behalf of the Employer and that such persons will not leave their regular duties without obtaining the permission of their immediate supervisor, which permission shall not be unreasonably withheld and, when resuming their regular duties, will report to their immediate supervisor so that the length of time they are absent from their regular duties will be under reasonable control. Provided that representatives comply with the above conditions, they will not lose money for time spent in the processing of grievances, attendance at negotiation sessions, or other meetings with the Employer held at a time that the representatives were scheduled to work. Payment for negotiation sessions will be up to and including mediation provided the employees are scheduled to work.
- 6.05 All Committees shall have the right to have the assistance of representatives or consultants from the Ontario Nurses' Association.
- 6.06 A union representative will be given the opportunity of orientating a new employee to the Union once during the first three (3) weeks of employment for a period of not more than fifteen (15) minutes. The new employee shall be obligated to attend such meeting. The employer shall advise the Union monthly as to the names of the persons to be orientated and shall designate the time and place of such orientation.

- 6.07 All references to representatives and Committee members in this Agreement shall be deemed to mean representatives and Committee members of the duly chartered local.
- 6.08 All Joint Labour Management Committee meetings shall be scheduled where practical during the nurse's regular working hours. The Employer will provide replacement staff where operationally required.

ARTICLE 7 - UNION SECURITY

- 7.01 The Employer shall deduct monthly from the pay due to each employee who is covered by this Agreement a sum equal to the monthly Union dues of each employee. The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the amount of such dues from time to time. The Employer will send to the Ontario Nurses' Association monthly, within fifteen (15) days after the deduction, its cheque for the dues so deducted. The Union shall indemnify and save the Employer harmless with respect to any liability for dues so deducted and remitted.
- 7.02 Along with the remittance of the first dues deduction in accordance with Article 7.01, the Employer shall forward a list to the Union showing the names, addresses, and social insurance number for each employee for whom dues have been deducted. Thereafter the Employer shall notify the Union, with each subsequent remittance, of any changes to the original list and reasons for same (i.e. change of status, leave of absence, termination, etc.).
- The amounts so deducted shall be remitted monthly to the Vice-President, Local Finance of the Union, no later than the end of the month following the month in which the dues were deducted. In remitting such dues, the Employer shall provide a list of nurses (last name, first name, employee number) from whom deductions were made, their telephone number, their work site (if the bargaining unit covers more than one site), and the nurses' social insurance numbers, amount of dues deducted, the job classification, and status of the nurses. The list shall also include name changes, deletions and additions from the preceding month highlighting new hires, resignations, terminations, new unpaid leave of absence of greater than one (1) month, returns from leaves of absence. A copy of this list will be sent concurrently to the local Union. The Employer shall provide the information provided in an electronic format. The Employer will also identify the dues month, arrears or adjustment payments with explanation, name(s) of the bargaining unit, cheque date and number as well as payroll contact information. The Employer will provide the members' current addresses and phone numbers it has on record, with the dues lists, at least every six months.
- 7.03 Prior to effecting any changes in rules or policies which affect nurses covered by this agreement the Employer will discuss such changes with and provide copies to the bargaining unit President. In absence of a bargaining unit President, copies shall be forwarded to the Labour Relations Officer.

ARTICLE 8 - GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

8.01 A grievance shall be defined as any matter arising out of this Agreement or concerning the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement.

8.02 Any employee may present a complaint at any time to the Director of Care without recourse to the formal written procedure contained herein. Failure to comply with this step or the manner in which it is complied with, shall not interfere with the formal grievance procedure, nor shall this step be subject of preliminary objections in any arbitration hearing. At any stage in the grievance procedure, including the complaint stage, the employee may be accompanied by her or his union representative.

8.03 Grievances shall be registered with the Employer as follows:

STEP 1

An employee(s) may present a grievance in writing to the Home Administrator. Such grievance must be presented within ten (10) days of the date of the event giving rise to the grievance. The Home Administrator shall render a decision in writing within ten (10) days following the day in which the grievance was submitted. If this decision is unsatisfactory to the employee(s) or the Union, Step 2 may be followed within ten (10) days.

STEP 2

The grievance in writing shall be referred to the Chief Administrative Officer or designate who shall call a meeting of the Grievance Committee within ten (10) days following the filing of the grievance. Within five (5) days following the meeting or within five (5) days following submission to the Administrator if no such meeting is held, the Chief Administrative Officer shall reply in writing to the employee(s), the Chairperson of the Grievance Committee, and the Labour Relations Officer. If the decision is unsatisfactory to the employee(s) or the Union, it may be referred to arbitration.

8.04 If the Union or the Employer so wishes, they may present any grievance in writing in the form of a policy grievance at Step No. 2 of the Grievance Procedure.

8.05 Notwithstanding any other provision in this Article should the Employer discharge, or discipline for just cause, an employee's notification by the Employer to such employee shall be made in the presence of the union representative in the employ of the Employer. The employee and the Union shall be provided with written reasons for discharge or discipline. Should the employee wish to file a grievance against the discharge or discipline, it shall be reduced in writing, and filed within five (5) days of the date of discipline or discharge with the Administrator.

8.06 (a) Before any grievance is submitted to arbitration, the parties may meet with a Grievance Mediator in order to attempt to resolve such grievance. The parties may refer any number of outstanding grievances to the Grievance Mediator for possible resolution. Each party shall pay one half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the Grievance Mediator.

- (b) When either party requests that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the parties will mutually agree to the appointment of a sole Arbitrator. Should the parties not agree on the appointment of a sole Arbitrator, the parties will proceed with a tripartite Arbitration Board.
- (c) In the event that the parties mutually agree to refer a grievance to a tripartite Arbitration Board, the party requesting arbitration shall advise the other of its nominee to the Arbitration Board. Within ten (10) days thereafter, the other party shall answer in writing, indicating the name and address of its appointee to the Arbitration Board. The Chair shall be selected from the Panel of Arbitrators set out in paragraph (b) above.
- (d) Once appointed the Arbitration Board or single Arbitrator shall have all the powers set out in Section 50 of the Labour Relations Act including the power to mediate/arbitrate the grievance and to limit evidence and submissions.

- 8.07 Each party shall pay the costs and expenses of its appointees and the costs and expenses of the Chairperson shall be borne equally by the parties.
- 8.08 The Arbitration Board shall not have jurisdiction to amend or add to any of the provisions of this Agreement, or to substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof, nor to give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.
- 8.09 No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.
- 8.10 Any time limit referred to in the grievance and arbitration procedures shall be exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and holidays observed by the Employer.
- 8.11 The parties may, by written agreement, substitute a sole Arbitrator for the Board of Arbitration and the Arbitrator shall possess the same powers and be subject to the same limitations as a Board of Arbitration.
- 8.12 The time limits set out in the grievance and arbitration procedures provided for in this Agreement are mandatory and shall be followed in all cases. Notwithstanding the above, the time limits herein may be extended by the written mutual agreement of the parties.

ARTICLE 9 - JOB SECURITY

- 9.01 Seniority for full-time employees shall be defined as the length of employment since last date of hire.
- 9.02 New employees shall be on probation for a period of 450 hours worked. The employment of probationary employees may be terminated at any time at the discretion of the Employer. The Employer in exercising this right however, shall not act in a discriminatory, arbitrary or bad faith manner. On completion of the probationary period, the employee shall be credited with seniority back to the date he or she was hired. Subject to the above, a probationary employee may grieve their termination.

- 9.03 The Employer will keep up-to-date seniority lists for employees in the bargaining unit and post the same in a conspicuous place after the execution of this Agreement and by August 1st of each year.
- 9.04 (a) An employee shall lose all seniority and shall be deemed terminated if he or she:
- i) resigns;
 - ii) is discharged and not reinstated;
 - iii) is absent for three (3) consecutive working days without notifying the Employer unless a satisfactory reason is given;
 - iv) is laid off for more than twenty-four (24) calendar months;
 - v) retires.
- (b) i) Seniority shall be retained but not accumulated when an employee is absent from work under the following conditions:
- A) when on approved leave of absence without pay;
 - B) when absent due to layoff for a period of twenty-four (24) calendar months;

Seniority Retained and Accumulated

- (c) Seniority and service for nurses shall be retained and accumulated when an employee is absent from work under the following conditions:
- i) When on approved leave of absence with pay;
 - ii) When on an approved leave of absence without pay, not exceeding thirty (30) consecutive calendar days;
 - iii) When on pregnancy or parental leave;
 - iv) When in receipt of WSIB benefits as the result of injury or illness incurred while in the employment of the Employer;
 - v) For full-time nurses, when in receipt of illness allowance including LTD;

- vi) For part-time nurses, when absent due to illness or injury in excess of thirty (30) consecutive calendar days.

The rate of accumulation of seniority and service for part-time nurses will be based on the employee's normal weekly hours paid over the preceding qualifying twenty-six (26) weeks. A qualifying week is a week where the nurse is not absent due to vacation, pregnancy/parental leave, WSIB, or illness or injury that exceeds thirty (30) consecutive calendar days.

9.05 If the Employer decides to fill a vacancy or create a new position in the bargaining unit, the Employer will post a notice thereof for seven (7) calendar days prior to making an appointment to the position in order that any interested employee may apply. If no qualified employee from either the full-time or part-time bargaining unit applies, the Employer may then hire a new employee. The name of the successful applicant shall be posted by the Employer. Nothing in this Article prohibits the Employer from temporarily hiring an employee to work during the time for compliance with the posting procedure.

9.06 It shall be the sole responsibility of the employee to leave her or his latest address and telephone number with the Home.

9.07 In all cases of transfer or promotion, the following factors shall be considered:

- (a) skill, ability, qualifications and experience;
- (b) seniority.

Where the factors in (a) are relatively equal, (b) shall govern.

9.08 Lay-off and Recall

- (a) The layoff of employees shall be in reverse order of seniority providing that employees remaining are qualified to perform the available work. Probationary employees shall be laid off first.

Full-time layoffs shall be separate from part-time layoffs. Notwithstanding this provision, when full-time or part-time employees choose to bump and there are no employees with less seniority on the applicable full-time or part-time seniority list as the case may be, then the lists will be merged for purposes of bumping.

Consistent with the opportunity to bump, all employees who are potentially impacted will be given notice of layoff at the outset of the process.

The decision of the employee to choose to bump must be given to the Employer in writing within seven (7) calendar days following the notification of layoff. Employees failing to do so will be deemed to have accepted the layoff.

No agency or new hires will be used when there is an employee on layoff provided that the employees on layoff are qualified to perform the available work.

Recall to a regular part-time or full-time position shall be in order of seniority. Notice of recall will be sent by registered mail. An employee will respond within seven (7) calendar days and shall be available for work within an additional fourteen (14) days unless otherwise agreed.

The Home and Union will meet and discuss the layoffs at the earliest opportunity. This discussion will include the service which the Home will undertake after the layoff.

(b) Lay-off and Recall - Long Term

In the event of a pending layoff of a permanent or long term nature, the Home will:

- i) provide the Union with at least ninety (90) days written notice.
- ii) meet with the Union to review the following:
 - A) the reasons causing layoff;
 - B) the service which the Home will undertake after the layoff;
 - C) the method of implementation, including areas of cutback and the employees to be laid off.

(c) It is understood that permanent or long term nature means a layoff which will be longer than thirteen (13) weeks. In the event of a layoff of a permanent or long term nature, the Home shall:

- i) provide to the affected employee(s), if any, no less than ninety (90) days written notice of layoff, or pay in lieu thereof.

(d) Severance pay will be in accordance with the provisions of the Employment Standards Act.

(e) An employee, upon long-term layoff, at her or his own expense, and except for short and long-term sickness and income protection, may continue benefit coverage for a period of twelve (12) months following the layoff by arranging to pay the full premiums, in advance, on a quarterly basis.

Positions Outside the Bargaining Unit

(a) An employee, who has been requested to substitute temporarily in a classification that is excluded from the bargaining unit, may refuse to do so. If she or he consents, she or he shall be deemed to be covered by the Collective Agreement.

- (b) An employee who is transferred to a position outside of the bargaining unit for a period of not more than one (1) year shall retain, but not accumulate her seniority held at the time of transfer. In the event the employee is returned to a position in the bargaining unit, she shall be credited with the seniority held at the time of transfer and resume accumulating from the date of her return to the bargaining unit. She shall also retain her last date of hire with the Employer for the calculation of salary and any monetary benefits.
- (c) In the event that an employee is transferred to a position outside of the bargaining unit for a period in excess of one (1) year, she will lose all seniority held at the time of transfer. In the event the employee is returned to a position in the bargaining unit, the employee's seniority will accrue from the date of her return to the bargaining unit.
- (d) An employee who transfers to a position outside of the bargaining unit for a period of up to twelve (12) months shall retain but not accumulate bargaining unit seniority while in that position.
- (e) In the event that an employee is transferred out of the bargaining unit under (b) above for a period of six (6) months or an academic year and is returned to a position in the bargaining unit, she shall not suffer any loss of seniority, service or benefits. It is understood and agreed that the period of time referred to above may be extended by agreement of the parties.
- (f) The Employer agrees to provide adequate orientation to an employee to fill the role of these positions.

9.10 Part-time employees shall be given the first opportunity to fill temporary vacancies. The Employer will outline to the employee selected to fill a temporary vacancy, the conditions and durations of such vacancy. Such temporary vacancies need not be posted.

9.11 All benefits and other credits obtained under the Agreement shall be retained and transferred with the employee if she or he changes her or his status from full-time to part-time and vice versa.

ARTICLE 10 – EMPLOYEE FILES

10.01 In the event that it is deemed necessary by the Employer to censure an employee by way of written warning, the Employer shall, provide the employee with a copy of the written warning, and at the same time, forward a copy to the Association. Once such written warning or censure is removed from an employee's record, it shall not thereafter be used against her.

Provided an employee has an eighteen (18) month discipline free record, any disciplinary records (letters of reprimand, suspensions or other sanctions) shall be removed from the employee's personnel file.

10.02 Upon request by an Employee, the Employee may examine her or his personnel file by pre-arranged appointment with the County's Human Resources Department.

- 10.03 A copy of any completed evaluation which is to be placed in an employee's file shall be first reviewed with the employee. The employee shall initial such evaluation as having been read and shall have the opportunity to add her or his views to such evaluation prior to it being placed in her or his file. It is understood that such evaluations do not constitute disciplinary action by the Employer against the employee. A copy shall be provided to the employee at her or his request.

ARTICLE 11 - LEAVES OF ABSENCE

11.01 Personal

The Employer may grant a request for leave of absence, without pay and without loss of, or accrual of seniority after thirty (30) days' leave, upon written request, on reasonable notice, by the employee as provided in writing by the Employer. Requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

11.02 Bereavement Leave

- (a) An employee who notifies the Employer as soon as possible following a bereavement shall be granted up to five (5) working days' off without loss of regular pay for grieving the death of a member of his/her immediate family. "Immediate family" means parent, step-parent, brother, sister, spouse, son, step-son, daughter, step-daughter, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, grandparent or grandchild. The Employer, in its discretion, may extend such leave with or without pay.

Part-time employees will be credited with seniority and service for all such leave.

Such leave shall be for the purpose of making arrangements for and/or attending the funeral. Pay shall be at the employee's regular rate and only the regular working time missed shall be paid for.

- (b) When an employee is unable to, due to distance of travel, attend a funeral of a member of her or his immediate family as defined in Article 11.02 (a), she or he shall be entitled to leave for mourning on the day of the funeral without loss of pay.
- (c) An employee may be granted an unpaid leave of absence of up to seven (7) days where required, because of distance, to travel to attend the funeral.

Pregnancy Leave

- (a) Pregnancy leave will be granted in accordance with the provisions of the Employment Standards Act, except where amended in this provision.
- (b) The employee shall give written notification at least one (1) month in advance of the date of commencement of such leave and the expected date of return.
- (c) The employee shall reconfirm her intention to return to work on the date originally approved in subsection (b) above by written notification received by the Employer at least four (4) weeks in advance thereof. The employee shall be reinstated to her former position unless the position has been discontinued in which case she shall be given a comparable job.
- (d) Employees newly hired to replace employees who are on approved pregnancy leave may be released and such release shall not be the subject of a grievance or arbitration. If retained by the Employer, in a permanent position, the employee shall be credited with seniority from date of hire subject to successfully completing her or his probationary period. The employee shall be credited with tours worked (hours worked for employees whose regular hours of work are other than the standard work day) towards the probationary period to a maximum of thirty (30) tours (two hundred and twenty-five (225) hours for employees whose regular hours of work are other than the standard work day).

The Employer will outline to employees hired to fill such temporary vacancies the circumstances giving rise to the vacancy and the special conditions relating to such employment.

- (e) The Employer may request an employee to commence pregnancy leave at such time as the duties of her position cannot reasonably be performed by a pregnant woman or the performance or non-performance of her work is materially affected by the pregnancy.
- (f) On confirmation by the Employment Insurance Commission of the appropriateness of the Employer's Supplemental Unemployment Benefit (SUB) Plan, a employee who is on pregnancy leave as provided under this Agreement who has applied for and is in receipt of Employment Insurance Pregnancy Benefits pursuant to Section 22 of the Employment Insurance Act, shall be paid a Supplemental Employment Benefit. That benefit will be equivalent to the difference between eighty-four percent (84%) of her regular weekly earnings and the sum of her weekly Employment Insurance Benefits and any other earnings. Biweekly payment shall commence following completion of the two (2) week Employment Insurance waiting period, and receipt by the Employer of the employee's Employment Insurance cheque stub, as proof that she is in receipt of Employment Insurance Pregnancy Benefits, and shall continue while the employee is in receipt of such benefits to a maximum period of fifteen (15) weeks. Normal weekly hours shall be determined by the average number of hours an employee working during the E.I. benefit determination period.

The employee does not have any vested right except to receive payments for the covered unemployment period. The plan provides that payments in respect of guaranteed annual remuneration or in respect of deferred remuneration or severance pay benefits are not reduced or increased by payments received under the plan.

Parental Leave

An employee who is eligible for a parental leave who is the natural father or adoptive parent may extend the parental leave for a period of up to twelve (12) months duration, consideration being given to any requirements of adoption authorities. In cases of adoption, the employee shall advise the Employer as far in advance as possible with respect to a prospective adoption and shall request the leave of absence, in writing, upon receipt of confirmation of the pending adoption. If, because of late receipt of confirmation of the pending adoption, the employee finds it impossible to request the leave of absence in writing the request may be made verbally and subsequently verified in writing.
- (c) The employee shall be reinstated to his or her former position, unless her or his former position has been discontinued, in which case she or he shall be given a comparable job.
- (d) Employees newly hired to replace employees who are on approved parental leave may be released and such release shall not be the subject of a grievance or arbitration. If retained by the Employer, in a permanent position, the employee shall be credited with seniority from date of hire subject to successfully completing her or his probationary period. The employee shall be credited with tours worked (hours worked for employees whose regular hours of work are other than the standard work day) towards the probationary period provided to a maximum of thirty (30) tours (two hundred and twenty-five (225) hours for employees whose regular hours of work are other than the standard work day).

The Employer will outline to employees hired to fill such temporary vacancies, the circumstances giving rise to the vacancy and the special conditions relating to such employment.

- (e) An employee who is on parental leave as provided under this Agreement who has applied for and is in receipt of Employment Insurance parental benefits pursuant to Section 23 of the Employment Insurance Act shall be paid a supplementary employment benefit. That benefit will be equivalent to the difference between eighty-four percent (84%) of her or his regular weekly earnings and the sum of her or his weekly Employment Insurance benefits and any other earnings. The Home may introduce supernumerary positions to be offered to newly graduated nurses. Where such positions are introduced, the following will apply:

1. The Employer may hire full-time supernumerary nurses, up to the maximum funding available as per the Ministry guidelines. The duration of such supernumerary appointments will be defined by the Nursing Graduate Guarantee rules and regulations.
2. Newly graduated nurses are defined by the Nursing Graduate Guarantee rules and regulations, currently defined as nurses who have graduated from a nursing program within the last year.

8. Notwithstanding paragraph 5 above, in the event of a layoff, the parties may require that the supernumerary nurse be laid off first.
9. Notwithstanding paragraph 5 above, if the nurse has not successfully posted into a permanent position by the end of the supernumerary appointment, she/he will be reclassified as casual part-time and this will not be considered a layoff.
10. Any issues related to the new graduate initiatives may be discussed at the Union-Management Committee Meetings.
11. The Home bears the onus of demonstrating that such positions are supernumerary.
12. The Union will be provided with such written information as it may reasonably require so the Employer can realize the funding regarding such supernumerary position.
13. Where there is a dispute or timeliness issue, either party may raise the concern with the Home and the Local.
