ARTICLE 1 – PURPOSE

1.01 The general purpose of this Agreement is to establish and maintain collective bargaining relations between the Employer and the employees covered by this Agreement; to provide for ongoing means of communication between the Union and the Employer and the prompt disposition of grievances and the final settlement of disputes and to establish and maintain mutually satisfactory salaries, hours of work and other conditions of employment in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

The Union recognizes that the Employer is an Aboriginal Community Health Centre and that it exists to serve all Aboriginal people in its catchment area. The Union recognizes, observes and respects Aboriginal rights, customs, traditions, spirituality, values and treaty rights as protected by the Constitution Act of Canada and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

1.02 It is recognized that the Union and the employees wish to work together with the Employer to secure the best possible health care and health promotion for patients.

1.03 The Employer shall not propose and/or enter into any agreement with an employee that pertains to any terms or conditions of employment that contravene the Collective Agreement. Any such agreement shall be null and void.

ARTICLE 2 – RECOGNITION AND DEFINITIONS

2.01 The Employer recognizes the Ontario Nurses' Association as the exclusive bargaining agent for all registered practical nurses, registered nurses, nurses with Temporary Certificates of Registration engaged in a nursing capacity, registered nurses – extended class and registered dietitians employed by Waasegiizhig Nanaandawe'iyewigamig in the City of Kenora and certain First Nations of Grand Council Treaty #3, save and except the program managers and those above the rank of Program Manager.

2.02 (a) Regular full-time is an employee who normally works a regular schedule of thirty-seven and one half (37.5) hours per week or seventy-five (75) hours bi-weekly.

An employee hired on this basis shall be deemed to be in the bargaining unit, with the employment automatically ending without obligation on the expiry of the term. Any vacation time earned will be taken after the term has expired. Should the employee later become hired in any position, time worked as a Contract employee will be considered for seniority and probation purposes.

(f) Unfilled Vacancies and Contract Personnel

Before accessing external contract personnel the Employer will firstly attempt to fill a vacancy by posting the position. If the vacancy cannot be filled the Employer shall offer additional work to bargaining unit employees on a seniority basis among those employees able to perform the work. ARTICLE 5 – UNION SECURITY

- 5.01 The Employer will deduct from each employee covered by this Agreement an amount equal to the regular monthly Union dues designated by the Union. The deduction period for a part-time employee may be extended where the employee does not receive any pay in a particular month.

Where an employee has no dues deducted during the payroll period from which dues are normally deducted, that deduction shall be made in the next payroll period provided the employee has earnings in the next payroll period.

If there is no agreement, the Employer shall make the deduction in the manner prescribed by the Union.

- 5.02 Such dues shall be deducted monthly and in the case of newly employed nurses, such deductions shall commence in the month following their date of hire.

During such interview, membership forms may be provided to the employee. These interviews shall be scheduled in advance and may be arranged collectively or individually by the Employer.
- 5.07 For the life of this Collective Agreement, the Employer will not contract out bargaining unit work if that results in the lay-off of employees.

7.08 Where the Employer requires an employee to attend a meeting outside of regularly scheduled hours, she or he will be paid for all hours spent in attendance at her or his regular straight time hourly rate.

ARTICLE 8 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.01 For purposes of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as a difference arising between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the Agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.

8.02 An employee who is to be disciplined, suspended, discharged or where a serious allegation has been raised, has the right to request to have a Union representative present. The Employer shall notify the employee of this right at the time of the booking of the meeting in cases of discipline, suspension or discharge. If the employee is to be disciplined, suspended or discharged, a copy of the letter shall be forwarded to the Union. The Employer agrees to provide written reasons within seven (7) calendar days to the affected employee and the Union in the case of a discharge or suspension.

- 8.03 It is the intent of the parties that complaints of employees shall be adjusted as quickly as possible and it is understood that an employee has no grievance until she or he has first given her or his immediate supervisor the opportunity of adjusting the complaint. Such complaint shall be discussed with her or his immediate supervisor within seven (7) calendar days after the circumstances giving rise to it have occurred. This discussion may include consultation, advice and assistance from others. If there is no settlement within seven (7) calendar days, it may then be taken up as a grievance within seven (7) calendar days in the following manner and sequence:

Step No. 1

The employee may submit a written grievance, through the Union, signed by the employee, to their Manager or designate. The grievance shall be on a form referred to in Article 8.09 and shall identify the nature of the grievance, the remedy sought and the provisions of the Agreement which are alleged to be violated. The parties may, if they so desire, meet to discuss the grievance at a time and place suitable to both parties. The Manager or designate will deliver her or his decision in writing within seven (7) calendar days following the day on which the grievance was presented to her or him. Failing settlement, then:

Step No. 2

Within seven (7) calendar days following the decision under Step No. 1, the grievance may be submitted, in writing, to the Executive Director or designate. The parties may, if they so desire, meet to discuss the grievance at a time and place suitable to both parties. If the parties meet, also present may be the grievor, and such counsel and assistance as either party may require. The decision of the Employer shall be delivered, in writing, to the Union within seven (7) calendar days following the date of such meeting or of the submission of the grievance if there is no meeting.

- 8.04 A complaint or grievance arising directly between the Employer and the Union concerning the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the Agreement shall be originated at Step No. 2 within fourteen (14) calendar days following the circumstances giving rise to the complaint or grievance. A grievance by the Employer shall be filed with the Bargaining Unit President or designate.
- 8.05 Where a number of employees have identical grievances and each employee would be entitled to grieve separately they may present a group grievance, in writing, signed by each employee who is grieving to the Executive Director or designate within fourteen (14) calendar days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance have occurred. The grievance shall then be treated as being initiated at Step No. 2 and the applicable provisions of this Article shall then apply with respect to the processing of such grievance.
- 8.06 The Employer will only discipline or discharge a non-probationary employee for just cause.

The Employer may discipline or discharge a probationary employee at its discretion and this action will not be subject to grievance or arbitration. Despite this, the discipline or discharge may be challenged if it was arbitrary, discriminatory or in bad faith or was as a result of the employee exercising a right under this Agreement.

- 8.07 (a) Failing settlement under the foregoing procedure of any grievance between the parties arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, such grievance may be submitted to arbitration as hereinafter provided. If no written request for arbitration is received within fourteen (14) calendar days after the decision under Step No. 2 is given, the grievance shall be deemed to have been abandoned. Where such a written request is postmarked within twelve (12) calendar days after the decision under Step No. 2, it will be deemed to have been received within the time limits.
- (b) The parties agree that it is their intent to resolve grievances without recourse to arbitration, wherever possible. Therefore, notwithstanding (a) above, the parties may, upon mutual agreement, engage the services of a mediator in an effort to resolve the grievance and may extend the time limits for the request for arbitration. The parties will share equally the fees and expenses, if any, of the mediator.

8.08 It is understood and agreed that the Union has carriage of all grievances throughout the grievance and arbitration procedure and not any individual or group of individuals. All agreements reached under the grievance procedure between the representatives of the Employer and the representatives of the Union will be final and binding upon the Employer and the Union and the employees.

8.09 Grievances shall be on the form set out in Appendix "B" as attached.

8.10 Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including any questions as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this Agreement has been violated, either of the parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure established by this Agreement, notify the other party in writing of its decision to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration.

The matter shall be determined by a sole arbitrator, unless the parties agree to proceed under Article 8.11. The sole arbitrator shall proceed by way of mediation arbitration at the request of either party. When either party requests that any such matter be submitted to mediation-arbitration or to arbitration as provided above, it shall make such request in writing addressed to the other party to this Agreement, at the same time.

No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.

Subject to Article 8.13, once appointed, the sole arbitrator shall have all powers as set out in Section 50 of the Labour Relations Act, including the power to mediate/arbitrate the grievance, to impose a settlement and to limit evidence and submissions.

8.11 The parties may agree to have the matter determined by a three (3) person board of arbitration.

If the parties have agreed to have the matter determined by a three (3) person board of arbitration, the party requesting arbitration shall, at the time of notification of its decision to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration, name a nominee. Within seven (7) calendar days thereafter the other party shall name a nominee.

No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.

Subject to Article 8.13, once appointed, the Board of Arbitration shall have all powers as set out in Section 50 of the Labour Relations Act, including the power to mediate/arbitrate the grievance, to impose a settlement and to limit evidence and submissions.

- 8.12 No matter may be submitted to arbitration, which has not been properly carried through all requisite steps of the Grievance Procedure.
- 8.13 The sole arbitrator or Arbitration Board shall not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify, add to or amend any part of this Agreement.
- 8.14 The proceedings of the Arbitration Board will be expedited by the parties. The decision of the sole arbitrator or Arbitration Board (the majority, and where there is no majority, the decision of the chair) will be final and binding upon the parties and the employee or employees concerned.
- 8.15 Each of the parties hereto will bear the expense of the nominee appointed by it and the parties will share equally the fees and expenses, if any, of the chair of the Arbitration Board.
- 8.16 The time limits set out in the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures herein are mandatory and failure to comply strictly with such time limits except by the written agreement of the parties, shall result in the grievance being deemed to have been abandoned subject only to the provisions of Section 48 (16) of the Labour Relations Act.
- 8.17 In recognition of the respect for and value of the wisdom and experience of Elders and/or other respected members of the Aboriginal community, grievors may request these community members to act in a supportive, confidential capacity throughout the grievance process. The parties may also agree that such a community member will act as a mediator or decision maker. This shall not be interpreted to be an obligation on any individual to seek the assistance of a member of the Aboriginal community.

ARTICLE 9 – PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

- 9.01 The parties agree that patient care is enhanced if concerns relating to professional practice, patient acuity, fluctuating workloads and fluctuating staffing are resolved in a timely and effective manner.

If for any reason an individual employee or group of employees has reason to believe that she/they are being asked to perform more work than is consistent with proper patient care, she or they shall:

- (a) At the time the workload issue occurs, discuss the issue within the unit/program to develop strategies to meet patient care needs using current resources.
- (b) If necessary, using established lines of communication, seek immediate assistance from an individual(s) identified by the Employer (who could be within the bargaining unit) who has responsibility for timely resolution of workload issues.
- (c) Failing resolution of the workload issue at the time of occurrence, the employees will discuss the issue with her or his Manager or designate on the next day that the Manager or designate and the employee are both working.
- (d) If unable to resolve the workload complaint, the matter may be discussed at the Labour Management Committee or as a grievance.

ARTICLE 10 – PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- 10.01 Continuous professional development is a hallmark of professional practice. The parties recognize the importance of maintaining a dynamic practice environment that includes ongoing learning, the maintenance of competence, career development, career counselling and succession planning. More specifically, professional development includes a diverse range of activities, including but not limited to formal academic programs; short-term continuing education activities; certification programs; and independent learning participation. The parties recognize their joint responsibility in and commitment to active participation in professional development.
- 10.02 The Employer undertakes to notify the Union in advance, so far as practicable, of any technological changes which the Employer has decided to introduce which will significantly change the status of employees within the bargaining unit.
- The Employer agrees to discuss with the Union the effect of such technological changes on the employment status of the employees and to consider practical ways and means of minimizing the adverse effect, if any, on the employees concerned.
- 10.03 An employee shall be entitled to leave of absence without loss of earnings for up to one (1) day from her or his regularly scheduled working hours, for the purpose of writing exams required as a result of being randomly selected in the Quality Assurance Program required by the Professional Colleges of Ontario. If the employee is required to travel for such exams, and the travel is greater than 500 kilometres one way, from Kenora, the leave shall be increased to up to three (3) days.

Each employee shall have reasonable access to her or his file for the purpose of reviewing its contents in the presence of her or his Supervisor and/or a representative from Human Resources.

A request by an employee for a copy of any documents in her or his file will not be unreasonably denied.

Any discipline consisting of a suspension shall be removed from an employee's file after three (3) years, provided that the employee has been discipline free for three (3) years.

Any discipline consisting of a written warning or less, shall be removed from an employee's file after two (2) years, provided that the employee has been discipline free for two (2) years.

ARTICLE 11 – SENIORITY

11.01 Seniority will be based on last date of hire for regular full-time employees and will accrue on the basis of hours paid for regular part-time employees. One year of regular full-time seniority shall be equivalent to fifteen hundred (1500) paid hours of regular part-time seniority. Casual employees will accrue seniority on the same basis as regular part-time employees.

Seniority shall be a factor used in determining lay-off and recall rights, job posting, vacation preference and other non-compensation matters.

(a) A newly employed employee hired on a regular or casual basis shall be considered a probationary employee until she or he has completed the equivalent of three (3) months of work, after which her or his name shall be placed on the seniority list, and her or his seniority shall date from the date of hire. Where the Employer requests an extension of the probationary period, it will provide notice to the Union at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the expected date of expiration of the initial probationary period. - (b) the employee will become responsible for full payment of any subsidized employee benefits in which she or he is entitled to participate during the period of absence. The employee may arrange with the Employer to prepay the full premium of any applicable subsidized benefits during the period of leave in excess of thirty (30) continuous calendar days to ensure continuing coverage;

- (c) if the employee voluntarily works occasional hours during the leave period, the employee shall be deemed to have continued on unpaid leave.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, seniority shall accumulate if an employee's absence is due to disability resulting from a workplace accident or illness or L.T.D., benefits.

The rate of accumulation will be based on the employee's normal weekly hours paid over the preceding qualifying twenty-six (26) weeks. A qualifying week is a week where the employee is not absent due to vacation, pregnancy or parental leave, WSIB (if applicable) or illness or injury that exceeds thirty (30) consecutive calendar days.

11.06 Deemed Termination

An employee shall lose all seniority and service and her or his employment shall be deemed to have terminated, if the employee:

11.07

Job-Posting

When the Employer decides to fill a vacancy or create a new position within the bargaining unit, the Employer shall post notice of this electronically and on bulletin boards for a period of at least seven (7) calendar days during which time employees will have the opportunity to apply and be considered for it.

The Employer will send a copy of all job-postings to the Union.

The Employer may advertise externally during the posting period.

The Union will be advised of the name of the successful applicant once the job is filled.

Temporary vacancies of less than six (6) months need not be posted but the Employer will make every reasonable attempt to fill such positions from within the bargaining unit.

- (b) A temporary employee who is a new hire shall be covered by all the terms in the Collective Agreement, except that she or he shall have no right to retain her or his job at the conclusion of the fixed term. However, if this employee is hired as a full-time or part-time employee during the fixed term, then the time worked shall be considered part of the probationary period for the full-time or part-time position.

In all cases of job-posting, transfer and promotion, the following factors shall be considered:

- (a) ability, qualifications and performance; and
- (b) seniority, as of the last pay period.

- (c) The Employer shall provide the Union and the employees affected with as much notice as possible consistent with the applicable legislation and in any event not less than thirty (30) calendar days notice of lay-off. In giving such notice, the Employer will indicate the reasons causing the lay-off and the anticipated duration of the lay-off. If requested, the Employer will meet with the Union to review the effect on employee(s) in the bargaining unit.
- (d) The Employer shall provide the Union and the employee(s) affected with as much notice as possible of a short-term lay-off. In giving such notice, the Employer will indicate the reasons causing the lay-off and the anticipated duration of the lay-off. If requested, the Employer will meet with the Union to review the effect on employee(s) in the bargaining unit.

Lay-off – Process and Options

- (a) In the event of a lay-off, employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of seniority provided that the employees who remain are, in the opinion of the Employer, able to perform the required work. Subject to the foregoing, probationary employees shall be first laid off.
- (b) In all cases of lay-off employees shall have the option to displace the least senior employee in the bargaining unit whose work she or he is qualified to perform. For clarity, employees will be paid according to the work performed.

- (e) Full-time and part-time lay-off and recall rights shall be separate.
- (f) No new employees shall be hired until all those employees who retain the right to be recalled have been given an opportunity to return to work, provided that such employees are, in the opinion of the Employer, able to perform the required work.

11.11 Recall from Lay-off

Employees shall be recalled in the order of seniority provided that such employees are, in the opinion of the Employer, able to perform the required work.

11.12 Where an employee has received notice of lay-off that the applicable legislation would deem to be a termination of employment, the employee may choose to resign and receive a separation allowance as per the relevant legislation.

11.13 Transfer Outside of the Bargaining Unit

(a) An employee who is transferred to a position outside of the bargaining unit for a period of more than three (3) months, but not more than one (1) year shall retain, but not accumulate, her or his seniority held at the time of the transfer. During the year of the leave members shall become responsible for the full payment of premiums for any group insurance benefits, and access to such benefits shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the insurance plan(s) in which they are participating. During the year of the leave contributions to the Hospitals of Ontario Pension Plan (HOOPP) will cease (on the basis that contributions for 100% of the salary earned during the four (4) years of salary deferral have already been made by both the member and the Employer).
- (i) A member may withdraw from the plan at any time during the deferral portion provided three (3) months' notice is given to the designated Employer Representative. Deferred salary, plus accrued interest, if any will be returned to the member, within a reasonable period of time.

- (l) The member will be reinstated to her or his former position unless the position has been discontinued, in which case the member shall be given a comparable position based on her seniority rights under the collective agreement.
- (m) Final approval for entry into the pre-paid leave program will be subject to the member entering into a formal agreement with the Employer in order to authorize the Employer to make the appropriate deductions from the member's pay. Such agreement will include:

- (ii) The period of salary deferral and the period for which the leave is requested.
- (iii) The manner in which the deferred salary is to be held.

The letter of application from the member to the Employer to enter the pre-paid leave program will be appended to and from part of the written agreement.

ARTICLE 13 – SICK LEAVE, LONG-TERM DISABILITY AND WELLNESS DAYS

- 13.01 Employees are covered by the Employer's sick leave policy, which can provide leave with regular pay for bona fide absence due to illness or injury of either the employee or an immediate family member for whom they are care-giver. Full-time employees earn paid sick leave based on service, at the rate of 1.25 days per month, to a maximum of fifteen (15) days per fiscal year. Part-time employees earn paid sick leave on a pro-rated basis. Probationary employees earn but may not access paid sick leave. There is no cash out of unused paid sick leave.
- Unused sick time carries over to the next fiscal year provided that a maximum of fifteen (15) sick days may be taken each fiscal year. Sick time available will be shown on employee paystubs.
- 13.02 An employee who is required to be absent from work and performance of regular duties because of the employee's bona fide illness, injury, or quarantine through exposure to contagious disease may apply to the Employer for sick leave.
- 13.03 An employee may be required to provide a doctor's certificate to justify any sick leave and will be required in all cases of any absence for three (3) or more days. The employee will obtain this certificate from a professional who is not employed within the bargaining unit. The Employer will reimburse the employee for this up to twenty-five dollars ($25.00).
- 13.04 If during an employee's vacation, should there occur a serious illness or accident which is verified by a medical certificate, then sick leave may be substituted for vacation. Similarly, if the employee provided acceptable proof of entitlement to leave under Article 12.06, Bereavement Leave, such leave may also be substituted for vacation. The resulting unused vacation would then be rescheduled at a mutually convenient later date.
- 13.05 An employee is required to notify her supervisor or designate as early as possible of any absence and the expected date of return to work.
- 13.06 Absences due to pregnancy related illness shall be considered as sick leave under the sick leave policy.

- 13.08 The Employer shall continue to provide short and long term disability coverage to employees by means of a group insurance plan. Coverage is as per the group insurance plan.
- 13.09 In the event an employee's sick leave entitlement has been exhausted, and the employee becomes ill, vacation or other credits may be used to the extent they are available. Where all available credits have been used, any further sick leave shall be without pay.
- 13.10 Subject to operational requirements, the Employer will allow employees an additional five (5) paid wellness days per year, to be granted based on advance written request of no less than two (2) weeks.

ARTICLE 14 – HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

The normal hours of work are from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Employees shall be entitled to a one (1) hour paid lunch period and two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid breaks.

The operational needs of the Employer are such that employees will from time to time be required to work outside of these normal hours. Employees will not be required to work on a Saturday or Sunday without their consent.

Notwithstanding the above, the parties may agree to and implement compressed work schedules where overtime will not be payable. The following have already been agreed to as examples of such schedules.

Employees will have the following options as compressed work schedules:

- (a) to work 37.5 hours over a four (4) day period each week;

The hours of work for participating members will be consistent each week and be in accordance with individual schedule approved by the member and management.

From time to time, the Employer may temporarily amend any compressed work schedule on no less than four (4) weeks' notice to the affected employees and the Union, so as to require employees to attend events (e.g. meetings, training sessions etc.) or so as to ensure adequate staffing levels in weeks with a statutory holiday, as part of their regular scheduled duties.

The Employer may end any compressed work schedule on no less than twelve (12) weeks' notice to the affected employees and the Union.

14.02 Overtime hours worked and authorized by the Employer, in excess of forty-four (44) hours per week, eighty-five (85) hours per pay period, shall be compensated by time off in lieu at one and a half times the employee's regular straight time rate. If both the Employer and the employee agree, compensation may be taken as pay instead of time off in lieu.

14.03 Flex Time

With the authorization of the Employer, an employee may flex her start, stop and number of hours worked to meet client service needs or for personal needs.

ARTICLE 15 – PAID HOLIDAYS

15.01 Employees shall be paid a normal day's pay at their regular rate for each of the following paid holidays:
